

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

GENERAL PUBLIC ACTS

PASSED BY THE

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEENTH LEGISLATURE

CHAPTER I.

An Act ceding to the United States of America jurisdiction over a lot of land situate in the city of Paterson, and exempting the same and its appurtenances from taxation.

WHEREAS, the United States of America have recently appropriated money for the erection of a building in the city of Paterson for the accommodation of the post office and other governmental offices of the United States; therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That jurisdiction of the land and its appurtenances which have been purchased in said city of Paterson for the erection of the aforesaid building, be and the same is hereby ceded to the United States of America; provided, that all civil and criminal process, issued under the authority of this state, or any officer thereof, may be executed on said land in the same way and manner as if jurisdiction had not been ceded as aforesaid. Lands ceded to United States. Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That the said land, with its appurtenances, and the building and other property thereon, shall forever hereafter be exempt from all state, county and municipal taxation and assessment so long as the Lands ceded exempt from taxation.

same shall remain the property of the United States of America.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved January 18, 1893.

GEORGE T. WERTS,
Governor.

ROBERT ADRAIN,
President of the Senate.

THOMAS FLYNN,
Speaker of the House of Assembly.

CHAPTER II.

An Act in relation to warrants drawn to meet disbursements and expenditures made by boards in cities of the first class in this state in certain cases, and giving the common council or other governing body power in relation thereto.

Form and manner of drawing warrants on treasury of cities to be protected by ordinance.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be lawful for the common council or other governing body in any city of the first class of this state to provide by ordinance for the form and manner in which warrants upon the treasury of the said city for the purpose of meeting and discharging obligations incurred by the expenditure and disbursements of other boards therein shall be drawn, signed and paid, and all warrants made and signed for such expenditures and disbursements in accordance with an ordinance duly passed for that purpose in any such city shall be deemed and taken to be in all respects regular and lawful.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.
L Approved January 31, 1893.

CHAPTER III.

A Supplement to the act entitled "An act to facilitate proceedings in the prerogative court," approved February eleventh, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the fifth section of an act entitled "An act to facilitate proceedings in the prerogative court," approved February eleventh, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, which fifth section reads as follows :

" 5. And be it enacted, That the vice-ordinary or vice-surrogate general shall receive as compensation for the performance of the duties which shall be imposed upon him under this act, an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars, in addition to his compensation as vice-chancellor, to be paid to him by the treasurer of the state in equal monthly or quarter-yearly payments, as he shall from time to time elect," be and the same is hereby repealed. Section repealed.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved January 31, 1893.

CHAPTER IV.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act respecting the court of chancery," approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

Annual salary of vice-chancellors.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the vice-chancellors of this state shall each be entitled to receive an annual salary at the rate of nine thousand dollars and no more; said salaries shall be paid in equal monthly payments by the treasurer of this state on the warrant of the comptroller of the treasury, and shall be in full of all services to be rendered by said officers respectively, and neither of said officers shall be entitled to any per diem or other allowance over and above said salaries.

Repealer.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved January 31, 1893.

CHAPTER V.

An Act to amend an act entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act respecting the orphans' court, and relating to the powers and duties of the ordinary and the orphans' court and surrogate,'" approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Section to be further amended.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section twenty-six of the act to which this act is a supplement, as the same was amended by a supplement to said act, approved March seventeenth, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and as further amended by a further supplement to said act, approved May eleventh, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, be and the same hereby is further amended, so as to read as follows:

26. And be it enacted, That when any will shall have been proved and recorded in any state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or in any foreign state or kingdom, and any person shall desire to have the same recorded in this state, for the purpose of making title to lands or real estate in this state, it shall be lawful for any surrogate of any county in this state, upon an exemplified copy of such will and proof thereof being filed in his office, exemplified and attested as a true copy according to the provisions of the act of congress for exemplifying and certifying judicial records of any state, if it be the record of any state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or in the manner required by the laws of the foreign state or kingdom in which such will shall have been proved and recorded, to make it legal evidence in such foreign state or kingdom, if it be the record of a foreign state or kingdom, to record such will and proofs and file the said copy in his office; and any such will and proofs and certificate, upon being so recorded, shall have the same force and effect, in respect to all lands and real estate whereof the testator died seized, as if said will had been admitted to probate and letters testamentary or of administration, with the will annexed thereon, had been issued in this state; and all conveyances of such real estate, heretofore or hereafter made, by any executor or executors, or administrator or administrators, with the will annexed, or the survivor or survivors of them, or by any devisee or devisees or their heirs, shall be as valid as if said will had been admitted to probate in this state, and such record or certified copies of said will and proof and certificate shall be received in evidence in all courts of this state.

Section as amended.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 8, 1893.

CHAPTER VI.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act to enable incorporated towns to construct water works for the extinguishment of fires, and supplying the inhabitants thereof with pure and wholesome water," approved March fifth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and enlarging the powers and authority of the commissioners appointed under said act.

Governing body provide by ordinance for control and management of sewer system.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all incorporated towns in this state, wherein a system of water works has been or shall be erected and put in operation under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to enable incorporated towns to construct water works for the extinguishment of fires and supplying the inhabitants thereof with pure and wholesome water," approved March fifth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and commissioners have been or shall be appointed and acting pursuant to the terms of said act, and in which a system of sewers has been or shall hereafter be constructed and put in operation under the laws of this state, it shall be lawful for the board of commissioners or other governing body of such incorporated towns to provide by ordinance or resolution, that the water commissioners appointed under the provisions of the act above recited shall take the control, charge and management of the sewer system of said town, and upon entering upon the discharge of their duties under this act, shall have power to authorize connections to be made therewith, and to establish rents for such connections and for the use of the said sewer system, and the time of payment thereof, as they may deem proper; and in their care and management of the said sewer system shall be governed by the same rules and regulations as are provided in the act above recited for the care and government of the water system of said town, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto.

2. And be it enacted, That said water commissioners, after the passage of such ordinance or resolution, shall have authority to prescribe such rules, regulations, conditions and restrictions as to the connection with and use of the said sewer system as in their opinion may be proper or necessary, and shall have power to employ suitable and proper laborers, workmen, clerks, collectors and assistants in the conduct, management and care of said sewer system upon such terms as they may deem reasonable; provided, that no regular salaries shall be allowed or paid by said water commissioners to any employee until the agreement therefor shall have been first submitted to and approved by the board of commissioners or other governing body of said towns.

Commissioners authorized to prescribe rules and have power to employ laborers.

Provided.

3. And be it enacted, That the rents for connections with and use of the said sewer system so fixed by the said water commissioners, shall draw interest from the time they become due, and shall be and remain, until paid, a lien upon the premises with which such sewer system shall be connected; and said water commissioners shall have similar remedies for the collection of said rents, with interest and costs, as the said towns have by law for collecting the expense of paving sidewalks in front of lots required to be paved in said towns, which remedies it shall be the duty of said water commissioners to enforce in all cases where the sewer rents shall be more than two years in arrear.

Rents draw interest from time due until paid, and are lien on premises.

4. And be it enacted, That the said water commissioners shall cause a careful estimate to be made of the cost of managing, keeping in repair, and operating the said sewer system once in each and every year, and estimate approximately the rents to be collected therefrom, for the ensuing year, and shall report the same in writing to the board of commissioners or other governing body of said towns on the first Monday of April, each and every year.

Estimate to be made of cost of managing sewer system annually.

5. And be it enacted, That in case of any deficiency from the revenue of said sewer system to meet the expenses thereof and the principal and interest on the bonds issued to construct the same, as they may become due, then it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners or other governing body of said towns to add to such deficiency so reported three percentum of the cost of managing and keeping in repair and operating the said sewer system, to cover losses and contingencies, and to assess such deficiency and said three percentum so added as aforesaid, upon all the taxable property in said town in the same manner as other taxes are assessed, and said sums shall be collected by the collector and other officers of said towns, who are by law required to collect taxes, and if not paid by the time required by law for the payment of other town taxes, shall be collected by warrant, and by and in the same manner as other taxes are collected in said towns, and shall be a lien upon the property whereon the same are assessed in like manner as other taxes of the said towns.

Case of deficiency three per centum to be added and assessed upon property.

Funds deposited in local banks.

6. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said water commissioners to keep all funds which may come to their hands on deposit with one or more of the banks located in said towns, and they shall draw said funds by checks to be signed by at least two of their members, which said checks shall specify briefly the purposes for which the same are drawn.

Receipts and disbursements, how kept open to inspection,
&c.

7. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said water commissioners to keep an accurate account of the receipts and disbursements connected with said sewer system in proper books to be provided for that purpose, and which shall always be open for the inspection of the board of commissioners or other governing body of said town, and their authorized agents, and which accounts shall be annually, in the month of March, audited by a committee of said board of commissioners or other governing body and a short abstract thereof shall be published with the annual statement of the town finances.

Additional compensation of water commissioners.

8. And be it enacted, That in addition to the amount which the said water commissioners are now entitled by law to receive, they shall receive and be paid as full compensation for all time, attention, trouble, and labor bestowed by them upon said sewer system, the sum of fifty dollars each per year.

Repealer.

9. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

10. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 8, 1893.

CHAPTER VII.

An Act concerning the location and erection of buildings for a city hall and the accommodation of the different officers and departments of the city government in cities of the first and second class in this state.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That all buildings, hereafter erected for a city hall and the accommodation of the different officers and departments of the city government in cities of the first and second class in this state, shall be so located and erected that there shall be an open and vacant space of ground of at least twenty-five feet in width on all sides of the same; provided, that this act shall not apply to the alteration and erection of additions to buildings now in use for such purposes.

Buildings erected for a city hall shall have open and vacant space twenty-five feet in width on all sides.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the common council, board of aldermen, board of commissioners or other governing body having charge of the locating and erecting of any such buildings as are mentioned in section one of this act, in any city of the first and second class in this state, to expend any moneys for the erection and completion of the same unless the said buildings are located and erected as provided for in section one of this act.

Not lawful for common council or other governing body to expend any moneys for erection of same unless as provided in section one.

3. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts in- Repealer.
consistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed in so far as their operation may conflict with this act.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 18, 1893.

CHAPTER VIII.

An Act to authorize the boards of managers of cemetery associations to pass by-laws.

Board of managers, directors or trustees of cemetery associations may pass necessary by-laws, and may amend or repeal any by-laws.

Proviso.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the board of managers, directors or trustees of any cemetery association, company or corporation of this state organized under any general or special law or laws, or the body having the management of any such cemetery, by whatever name such body may be known, may ordain, pass and put into execution such by-laws as they may judge to be necessary and convenient for carrying into effect the objects of the association and for regulating such association; and may amend or repeal any by-laws already in existence; provided, however, that no such change shall be made except by a vote of three-fourths of the total number of such managers, directors or trustees at a meeting thereof specially called to consider changes in the by-laws.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 14, 1893.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act to enable counties which have no county hospital to assist in maintaining hospitals located in such county," approved April twenty-sixth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Section to be amended

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section one of the act to which this is a supplement be amended so as to read as follows:

Freeholders authorized to make annual appropriations for maintenance of patients in hospitals.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for the board of chosen freeholders of any county of this state which has no hospital located therein maintained by such county, other than the hospital or sick ward of the county poorhouse, to make an appropriation of a sum of money not exceeding five thousand dollars each year in the same manner that appropriations for other county purposes are made, which sum so appropriated shall be included in the annual tax levy of such county, and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other county taxes, and shall be applied to the purpose of supporting and maintaining such patients as may be sent to any hospital or hospitals supported by private charity and located in such county; provided, the sum so appropriated be used and applied for the benefit, comfort and maintenance of such patients, inmates of such hospital, as are residents of said county at the time of being sent to said hospital; provided, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to counties of the first class.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 28, 1893.

CHAPTER XXX.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act concerning legacies" (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section eight of the act above mentioned, to which this act is amendatory, be and the same hereby is amended to read as follows: Section to be amended.

8. And be it enacted, That whenever personal property is bequeathed to any person for life, or for a term of years, or for any other limited period, or upon a condition, or any contingency, the executor or administrator cum testamento annexo shall not be compelled to pay or deliver the property so bequeathed to the person having any such life interest, or other interest as aforesaid, until security shall be given to the orphans' court having jurisdiction of such executor's or administrator's accounts, in such sum and form as in the judgment of the said court shall sufficiently secure the interest of the person or persons entitled in remainder, whenever the same shall accrue or vest in possession; but where the person or persons next immediately in remainder shall be the lineal descendant of any such life tenant, or person having any limited estate as aforesaid, and such executor or administrator shall not have filed any security, such life tenant or other person having such limited interest or estate as aforesaid shall not be required to give security in a greater sum than fifty thousand dollars; provided, however, in every case where the executor or administrator is the person to whom any such life interest, or other interest as aforesaid, is bequeathed, then such executor or administrator, before receiving into his possession such personal property, notwithstanding that by the will it is or may be provided that no security shall be required of the executor, shall file with the surrogate of the county in which the will shall be or has been proved, or letters granted, a Security required from legatee for life or limited period.

bond to the ordinary of this state in double the amount of the money or the value of the property to be received, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the orphans' court, conditioned for the faithful conservation of said property, and until such a bond shall be filed it shall not be lawful for such executor or administrator to receive such money or personal property, but the orphans' court may, upon petition presented by any person in interest, and upon ten days' notice in writing to such executor or administrator, appoint some other fit person to receive and administer such property as trustees upon such security being given for the faithful discharge of his duties as to the said court shall seem proper.

Provisions of this act apply to all cases.

2. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid provisions of this act shall be held to apply as well to all cases where any will has already been proved as where it shall be proved; provided, however, that any such executor has not already received such personal property into his possession.

Repealer.

3. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general, special or local, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 28, 1893.

CHAPTER XXXI.

An Act authorizing the payment to the Heinz Printing Company of the sum of two thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars for work done for the state.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The house of assembly on the first day of March, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, adopted the following resolution: "Resolved, That the Heinz Printing Company be authorized to print the following reports in the German language for the use of the members of this house: one thousand copies of the report of the bureau of statistics, one thousand copies of the report of the board of agriculture, one thousand copies of the report of the state geologist, all for the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, to be paid at the same rate as the preceding year;" and, whereas, the Heinz Printing Company, in compliance with the aforesaid resolution, proceeded with the aforesaid work, and expended thereon the sum of four thousand dollars for the purchase of maps, drawings and printing, and also delivered a portion of said work to the state, when the said company discovered that the resolution was not such an authorization to do the work as required by law in order to make the state responsible for the payment of said work, and has received no pay for said work; therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the treasurer of the state, upon the warrant of the comptroller, is hereby authorized and required to pay to the Heinz Printing Company the sum of two thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars for such work and disbursements.

ment, voting at a special election held for the purpose, pursuant to the provisions of any law of this state, shall or may hereafter have authorized the issue of "improvement bonds" for the construction of a system of water works and a sewage system, or any other public improvement for said borough, it shall and may be lawful for the mayor and council of said borough to issue bonds of the said borough, under the signature of the mayor and borough clerk, with the corporate seal affixed, to be styled "improvement bonds."

Amount of improvement bonds not to exceed ten per centum of assessed valuation shown by assessor's duplicate.

2. And be it enacted, That the aggregate amount of the "improvement bonds," authorized by section one of this supplementary act, shall not at any time exceed ten per centum of the amount of the assessed valuation of the property in the said borough, as shown by the assessor's duplicate for the preceding year; and the said bonds shall be issued in such sums, payable at such time or times, not longer than twenty years, and bear interest, payable semi-annually, at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, as the mayor and council of said borough shall by ordinance direct.

Bonds to be sold at not less than par value.

3. And be it enacted, That the said bonds hereby authorized shall be negotiated or sold at public or private sale, at not less than the par or the face value thereof, and the proceeds of said bonds shall be appropriated, by the mayor and council of said borough, only to the payment and cancellation of such indebtedness as shall or may be incurred for and in the erection and construction of the said system of water works and sewage system of said borough, and for such other necessary public improvements as shall be within the powers of the mayor and council of said borough, by virtue of the provisions of the act to which this act is a supplement, or such other and further acts applicable thereto as may be now or hereafter enacted.

Repealer.

4. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts, inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved February 28, 1898.

2. And be it enacted, That section four of the act to which this is an amendment be and the same is hereby repealed.

3. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall be a public act and shall take effect immediately.

Passed February 28, 1893.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

An Act concerning public roads and parks, and creating boards for the control and management of the same.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the township committee in the respective townships of this state, or a majority of such committee, may, at their first regular meeting or at a special meeting, after this act shall have become a law, divide their respective townships into convenient road districts, cause maps thereof to be made and filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which said township is located, with the clerk of such township and with the clerk of the road board to be organized as hereinafter provided, with a copy of their resolution making such division.

Township committee authorized by resolution to divide townships into road districts, and file maps.

2. And be it enacted, That the said committees shall, by resolution adopted at said meeting so held as aforesaid, submit the question of the acceptance or rejection of this act to the voters of such township at any general or special election to be held therein, whereof at least ten days' notice shall be given, in the manner now directed for the giving of notice of the annual township elections or town meetings; and if a majority of those who shall vote for the acceptance or rejection thereof shall be in favor of the acceptance of this act, then this act shall go into effect immediately, and the grant of power herein made to any such township shall be deemed accepted by such township, and such township shall be bound by the terms of this act; persons entitled to vote at any township election or town meeting, where this question is submitted to them, shall express their assent or rejection of this act by depositing ballots at such election in the election district of any township; and those who are in favor of the acceptance of this act and the grants and powers therein contained, shall deposit a ballot containing the words "road act of 1893 (with chapter number of

Commissioners to be known as the "public road board."

Time when and how to organize said board.

4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners when so elected as aforesaid, and their successors to be thereafter elected, are hereby constituted a board of commissioners to be known as the "public road board" of the respective townships in which the same may be elected; that the said commissioners or a majority of them shall within ten days after their election, at two o'clock in the afternoon, assemble at such place as may be designated by said township committee by a resolution adopted for that purpose and of which written notice shall be given to each of said commissioners, and proceed to the organization of said board by the election of a president and such other officers as they shall see fit, who shall hold their offices for one year or until their successors are elected, and annually thereafter, on the first Monday in May, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, said commissioners shall meet for such organization as aforesaid, and the said officers when so elected shall hold their offices for the period of one year, or until their successors are elected as hereinbefore provided.

Term of office.

Vacancies to be filled by the board.

5. And be it enacted, That the term of office of each commissioner elected after the expiration of the term of office of the commissioners hereinbefore provided for shall be three years; and that he shall be a legal voter of the township and a freeholder and resident of the district for which he is nominated and elected, and shall be elected as hereinafter provided; that all vacancies in said board arising from death, resignation, removal from the township, or any cause other than the expiration of the term of office, shall be filled by the said board within thirty days from the occurrence of the same, with a person who is a legal voter of the township and a freeholder and resident of the district for which he is named; that when any vacancy shall arise from other cause than the expiration of the term of office, then the remaining members of the board shall discharge the duties of the retiring member or members until his or their successor or successors shall have been appointed; and each commissioner shall, before he enters upon the performance of the duties of his office, take an oath or affirmation before any officer of this state authorized to take the same, faithfully, fairly and impartially to exercise and perform the duties of said office, which oath or affirmation shall, within five days after taking the same, be filed with the clerk of said township. To file oath

6. And be it enacted, That the commissioners herein provided for shall within the limits of the district to which each shall from time to time be assigned, have the same duties, and be subject to the same penalties as overseers of the highways in the said township now have or heretofore had, perform or performed or are or were subject to within and for the said township, and that the board hereby created shall in addition to the other powers and duties conferred and enjoined by this act, have the same powers, perform the same duties, and be subject to the same obligations and penalties as the township committee now have, had, perform or performed or are or were subject to, in relation to the public highways; and in addition thereto shall have a general and exclusive supervision, control and management of the public highways and sidewalks in said township and of their repair or regulation, and of all parks and other lands in such township which have been or may be dedicated to the public or which may be acquired as now provided by law, and shall from time to time prescribe by the vote of the majority of said board the manner in which the public highways shall be worked, repaired, kept in order, regulated and named, and the time when the same shall be worked and repaired; and if any person shall desire to dedicate to public use, as a highway, any portion of his or her land, and twelve freeholders of the district in which said lands so proposed to be dedicated are situated, shall petition the said board to accept the same for public use, then upon grading the same and putting it in good condition as a highway and the execution of a deed of the same to the inhabitants of the said township with an acceptance in writing signed by a majority of the said board, endorsed thereon and recorded with the same in the office of the clerk of the county wherein said township is lo- Duties and penalties.

Board to call annual assembly of freeholders.

Commissioner to preside.

7. And be it enacted, That the said board shall once in every year call an assembly in each of said districts of the freeholders in said district in the manner provided for in section three of this act; that at said assembly the commissioner of said district shall preside, and the said freeholders so assembled shall have the same powers and authority particularly enumerated and set out in said last-named section, and they and their property shall be subject to the like liability therein particularly stated; that the enactment in this section shall be subject to the three provisos in said last-named section particularly set out, and that no vote or appropriation shall be valid unless under circumstances detailed in said section, and that a minute of said meeting shall be kept and entered as therein provided.

Assembly to prescribe rules.

Taxes, how assessed and collected.

8. And be it enacted, That the said assembly shall be conducted according to such general rules as the said board may from time to time prescribe, and shall decide, vote and appropriate such sum or sums as they shall deem necessary and proper for the use of the public highways, sidewalks and parks in the district, and the tax so voted shall be assessed by the township assessor and collected by the township collector in the manner provided by law for the assessment and collection of taxes in the said township, and shall be paid over by the officer or officers receiving the same to the president of said board, to be by the said board applied to the purposes prescribed by this act.

Board authorized to employ surveyors, laborers, &c.

9. And be it enacted, That the said board may appoint, employ and discharge from time to time such surveyors, superintendents, engineers and laborers as they may deem necessary in order more effectually to carry out the intentions of this act, and pay them with compensation or wages as they may deem fair and reasonable; also to purchase or hire and to use for the said township such horses, cattle, implements and materials as they may deem proper.

10. And be it enacted, That the said board shall (subject only to the right of appeal and review hereinafter provided) have the full and exclusive power and authority to lay out, open, widen, alter, straighten, grade and vacate public highways in such townships; that whenever the said board, upon the written application of twelve freeholders in any of the said districts, shall deem it expedient to lay out, open, alter, widen, straighten, grade or vacate any public highway, or any number of connecting public highways in any such township, the said board shall cause a map of such proposed measures to be made and filed in their office, which map shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by any person desiring to inspect the same, and shall thereupon cause notice to be given, as provided in section three of this act, and by printed hand bills, or hand bills partly printed and partly written, posted conspicuously in ten or more public places in such district, stating that such map is open for inspection and requiring all persons interested therein to appear before said board at a convenient time and place, to be specified in said notice, when and where the said board shall hear and weigh all arguments for or against said improvements; and if, at said time, any one or more parties interested desire an adjournment of the said hearing, and give notice in writing to said board of such desire, said hearing shall be adjourned to such other time as may be determined upon by said board; that after said hearing the commissioners shall appoint a committee of their number to examine the route of the proposed road, and to report upon the feasibility and advisability of the same, and what changes, if any, should be made therein, and thereupon the said board shall decide and determine upon the necessity of such proposed improvement, and if the said board shall decide and determine in favor thereof they shall make their decision in writing and shall award such damages as they may deem just to each and every person affected thereby, and assess such lands as may be benefited in proportion to the benefit received by the owners thereof, but in no case exceeding the same; that within five days after making such assessment as aforesaid, a printed or written or partly printed and partly written notice shall be addressed and mailed to each vided) have the full and exclusive power and authority to construct sidewalks and gutters of such material as they shall deem proper along any public highway in said township, upon the application in writing of the owners of a majority of the lineal feet of lands fronting upon both sides of the highway whereon such improvement is to be made; that whenever the said board upon receiving such written application as aforesaid shall deem it expedient to construct such sidewalks and gutters as aforesaid, they shall proceed to a determination of said question in the same formal manner particularly enumerated and set out in section ten of this act; and if the said board shall decide and determine that said improvement is necessary and shall decide in favor thereof, they shall make their decision in writing, and shall assess such lands as may be benefited in proportion to the benefit received by the owners thereof, but in no case exceeding the same; that thereupon the said board shall give notice of said assessment in manner provided in said section ten of this act, and shall proceed in all things to the final determination thereof as is particularly provided in said last named section; that upon such final determination the same shall be final and conclusive unless an appeal be taken as provided for in this act.

Board shall have full and exclusive power to construct sidewalks, &c.

Procedure.

Shall assess lands in proportion to benefit received by owners thereof.

18. And be it enacted, That said public road board shall have full power and authority, upon the application in writing of twelve freeholders of any such townships for that purpose, to excavate, build and construct in any road, street or avenue, and with the consent of the owner in any private lands, such sewer or sewers as they may deem requisite or proper for purposes of drainage, and for the preservation of the public health; that whenever said board shall deem it advisable to construct such sewer or sewers, they shall proceed to a determination of said question in the same formal manner particularly prescribed and laid down by section ten of this act; and if the said board shall decide and determine that said improvement is necessary, they shall make their decision in writing and shall assess such lands as may be benefited in proportion to the benefits received by the owners thereof, but in no case exceeding the same; that thereupon the said board shall give notice of said assessment in manner provided in said section ten of this act; and shall proceed in all things to the final determination thereof as is particularly provided in said last-named section; that upon such final determination the same shall be final and conclusive, unless an appeal be taken as provided in this act.

Appeal to court of common pleas.

14. And be it enacted, That any person feeling himself or herself aggrieved by the action of said board under the tenth, twelfth and thirteenth sections of this act may, within, twenty days from the filing of the decision of the board in the office of the clerk of the county in which said township is located, appeal to the court of common pleas of such county by serving a notice in writing upon any member of the said board, and the said court shall have full power to hear, determine and review the proceedings of the board in the premises, and to confirm, alter, modify, set aside or reverse in whole or in part for errors, either of fact or law, and the said court shall have power to hear and try the same in a summary way and may summon a jury to determine any question of fact, and the said court may proceed in due course according to the power of the court in other cases, and the determination of the said court shall be final and conclusive in the premises and not subject to appeal or review, and the said court or any judge thereof may, until such determination, stay all proceedings in the matter, in reference to which the appeal may be taken until such final determination, and the like fees and costs shall be paid to the judges, jury, officers of the court and parties as are allowed in other causes of which the court has or may have jurisdiction, and the said court shall have power to make and prescribe all necessary forms, rules and regulations in the conduct of any proceeding to be taken under this act.

Trial by jury.

Fees and costs paid.

Rules and regulations.

Assessment lien on lands.

15. And be it enacted, That if no appeal shall be taken within the time and in the manner prescribed herein the action of the said board shall take effect, and the said board may proceed to carry out the same under this act, and any assessment laid by virtue hereof shall be a lien on the lands on which it is laid, and the said commissioners shall procure a certified copy of their award and the judgment of the said court of common pleas, if any appeal shall have been taken, to be placed in the hands of the collector of taxes for the time being of any such township, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the collector to collect the said assessment within sixty days from the time of placing such copy in his hands, and to pay the same over to the president of the said board; and the said collector shall, in the collection of the assessment, be liable to the same pains and penalties and entitled to the same fees as in the collection of the annual township taxes, the said fees being reserved by him out of the amount so collected; provided, that the said collector, in each and every year before proceeding under this act, shall enter into bonds to the said board with such sureties and in such sums as the said board shall approve, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under this act; and the said president, before receiving any money from said collector, shall enter into bonds to the inhabitants of such township in their corporate name, with such sureties and in such sum as the said board shall approve, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such president.

Collector to collect assessment.

Fees of collector.

Proviso.

16. And be it enacted, That in case any owner or owners of lands assessed for any of the purposes as aforesaid shall fail to pay the assessment laid thereon, within three months from the time of placing the certified copy of the award in the hands of the collector, then the lands upon which the said assessment is a lien shall be sold in the same manner as land is now authorized by law to be sold for unpaid taxes in any such township upon a warrant issued by said board of like character and form as that issued for the collection of said taxes, so as to raise a sufficient sum to pay the said assessment and the interest, at the rate of twelve per centum per annum, from the expiration of sixty days from the time of placing such copy in the hands of the collector, and the lawful costs and fees of collection and sale.

Lands to be sold if assessments remain unpaid for three months.

17. And be it enacted, That notwithstanding any mistake in the name or names of the owner or owners of any lands, tenements and real estate, in the said township in making awards or assessments, or in giving or addressing notice of the same, in pursuance of the tenth section of this act, such awards and assessments shall be valid and effectual in law against such lands, tenements and real estate, and the same may be proceeded against and sold in the manner prescribed in the sixteenth section of this act.

Mistake in names of owners of lands does not invalidate assessment.

Board authorized to borrow money.

18. And be it enacted, That the said board is hereby authorized to borrow money in anticipation of the sums to be raised annually by tax for road purposes, in the several districts of said township, and thereupon if the commissioner of any district shall in writing require the said board of his township to advance the sum voted in such district, such board shall proceed to raise the same within thirty days after such requisition; the money so advanced to be repaid by the president of said board when he shall receive the amount levied by tax from the township collector.

Commissioners have general and exclusive control of sidewalks and gutters.

19. And be it enacted, That this act shall be construed so as to give the commissioners a general and exclusive supervision, control and management of all sidewalks and gutters along the public highways within their respective road districts, and to pay for their repair and regulation out of the moneys voted by the annual assemblies and raised by tax, as in this act provided.

Compensation of commissioners.

20. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall receive two dollars a day for each and every day's attendance upon and about the duties imposed upon them by this act, which shall be paid to them by the township collector upon the order of the president of the board, and there shall be levied and collected in each and every year, at the time and in the manner provided for the collection of taxes in such township, a sum sufficient to defray such fees, advertising expenses and such other general expenses, costs and charges as the said board may become liable for in performing their duties under this act, the amount of which shall be annually determined by said board and certified under seal to the assessor of said township; and that wherever the word "board" is used in this act it shall be considered as meaning a majority thereof.

Meaning of the word "board."

21. And be it enacted, That at each annual meeting or assembly, held as provided in this act, the commissioner presiding shall present his accounts, which shall give in separate items a statement of work done, the location of it and the amount paid therefor and to whom paid, and also in separate items a statement of all other expenditures for the past year, which accounts shall be read to the meeting and be examined by it or by a committee of three persons appointed by said meeting; and within two weeks thereafter the commissioner presiding shall cause the said accounts to be published in full in a newspaper printed and published in the township, if there be one, and if not, then in a newspaper printed and published in the county in which such township is located.

At annual meeting the commissioner shall present an itemized statement of all expenditures.

Publication of accounts.

22. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that nothing in this act shall apply to or affect any street, avenue or highway under the charge or control of any county public road board in this state.

Proviso.

Approved March 1, 1893.

CHAPTER XXXV.

An Act concerning bailments.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall not be lawful in cities, towns or other municipalities of this state where there is located any corporation expressly authorized to receive on deposit for safe-keeping valuable property, for the officers or directors of any incorporated bank, savings bank, trust company, life or fire insurance company (not so expressly authorized) to take or accept for safe-keeping, stocks, bonds, jewelry, plate, money or other valuable property of any kind, unless such officers or directors shall have been specially authorized to take the same on such deposits by a vote of the majority in interest of all the stockholders of such bank or corporation, at a meeting of the stockholders of such bank or corporation called

CHAPTER XXXVI.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the punishment of crime" (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Section to be amended.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section sixty-eight of the act entitled "An act for the punishment of crime" (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, which now reads :

"68. And be it enacted, That all murder which shall be perpetrated by means of poison, or by lying in wait, or by any other kind of wilful, deliberate and premeditated killing, or which shall be committed in perpetrating or attempting to perpetrate any arson, rape, sodomy, robbery or burglary, shall be deemed murder of the first degree, and all other kinds of murder shall be deemed murder of the second degree, and the jury before whom any person indicted for murder shall be tried shall, if they find such person guilty thereof, designate by their verdict whether it be murder of the first or second degree, but if such person shall be convicted on confession in open court the court shall proceed by examination of witnesses to determine the degree of the crime and give sentence accordingly ;" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows :

Murder.

68. And be it enacted, That all murder which shall be perpetrated by means of poison, or by lying in wait, or by any other kind of wilful, deliberate and premeditated killing, or which shall be committed in perpetrating or attempting to perpetrate any arson, rape, sodomy, robbery or burglary, shall be deemed murder of the first degree, and all other kinds of murder shall be deemed murder of the second degree, and the jury before whom any person indicted for murder shall be tried shall, if they find such person guilty thereof, designate by their verdict whether it be murder of the first degree or second degree; and in no case shall the plea of guilty be received upon any indictment for murder, and if, upon arraignment, such plea of guilty should be offered it shall be disregarded and a plea of not guilty entered, and a jury, duly empaneled, shall try the case in manner aforesaid; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the accused of pleading non vult or nolo contendere to such indictment; the sentence to be imposed, if such plea be accepted, shall be the same as that imposed upon a conviction of murder of the second degree.

Degrees of murder.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be a public act, and to take effect immediately.

Approved March 1, 1893.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

An Act concerning assessments for benefits and awards for damages in the opening of streets in cities of this state, and providing for a new assessment and award.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all cases where writs of certiorari may be brought to remove assessments for the costs and expenses of laying out or opening any street in any city of this state, it shall be lawful for the supreme court or one of the justices thereof, in term or vacation, on the application of the city to appoint three commissioners to make a new assessment of the costs and expenses thereof, and a new award of damages for the land taken in such improvement, and the commissioners so appointed shall proceed to make a new assessment and award upon the same principles and in the same manner as if they had been the original commissioners, and shall give such notice of a hearing before them, and of the time when they will present their report to such court or justice, when objections may be presented to such report, as the court or justice may direct, and said commissioners shall present their report in writing, signed by a majority of them, to such court or justice, and such court or justice, after hearing the parties to such certiorari, if they appear, and such other parties in interest as shall appear at the time fixed for the presentation of said report and hearing thereon, may modify and confirm such report as to the court or justice shall seem just, and such report, when so confirmed, shall be final, both as to the assessments for benefits and awards for damages therein contained, and shall be in lieu of the original report; and all such assessments shall be collected and awards for damages paid in the manner provided in the statutes for collecting such assessments and payments of awards for such improvements, and such assessments shall be due from the date of the confirmation of such report, which shall be filed, together with the other papers, with the person charged with the duty of the collection of such assessments in the respective cities.

2. And be it enacted, That in all cases where awards for damages are made for land taken in the opening of any street in any city of this state, there shall be at the time of the making of such award unpaid taxes and assessments due to such city on the lands so taken, the amount so due for such unpaid taxes and assessments, with all interest, shall be deducted from the award at the time of payment or tender thereof by the officer charged with the payment thereof.

3. And be it enacted, That such commissioners shall receive such compensation for their services as such court or justice shall order, to be paid by such city.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 1, 1898.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An Act concerning evidence," approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the printed statute books and pamphlet session laws or other laws of any foreign country or of any province or subdivision thereof, printed and published by the direction or authority of such foreign country, province or subdivision thereof shall be received as evidence of the public statutes or laws of such foreign country, province or subdivision thereof in any and all courts of this state; and the court may determine whether any such book or pamphlet offered in evidence was so printed or published, either from the inspection of such book, or the knowledge of the court, or from testimony in support thereof, and no error shall be assigned for the rejection of any such book or pamphlet so offered, unless it be proven on error that such book or pamphlet offered as such in evidence is what it purports to be; nor shall any error assigned for the admission of such book or pamphlet be sustained unless it be shown in support thereof that the statute or law offered in evidence or some material part thereof was not in force in such foreign country, province, or subdivision thereof at the time of the transaction or matter to which it was offered as pertinent or material.

Public statutes or laws of foreign countries authorized to be published received as evidence in all courts of this state.

Court may determine as to authenticity.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 1, 1893.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

An Act to enable villages in this state to acquire lands and erect buildings for municipal uses and purposes.

Governing body of any village with three thousand population authorized to purchase lot and erect public hall.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be lawful for the governing body of any village having a population of three thousand or over to purchase a suitable lot or tract of land within such village, and to erect thereon a building for a public hall for the use of the people thereof, to hold their public meetings and have their public offices located therein, and for such other purposes as the said governing body may deem for the interests of said village, the cost of which said lot and building shall not exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

Authorized to issue bonds denominated "public building bonds."

Term bonds shall run.

Denomination of bonds.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the governing body of such village to raise money for the purposes aforesaid by the issuing of the bonds of such village, which bonds shall be denominated "public building bonds," and shall state upon their face the purpose for which they were issued; and the term for which said bonds shall run shall not be longer than thirty years, and they shall be redeemable any time after the expiration of five years, at the option of the said village; and shall be of denomination of not less than five hundred dollars, and shall bear not exceeding the legal rate of interest, and shall not be sold at less than par.

Authorized to lease, rent or hire any part of said building not necessary for public uses exclusively.

3. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of said bonds as the same shall become due, and for the further purpose of maintaining such building and for the general improvement of the same, said village is hereby authorized to lease, rent or hire, for any specified time, any part of said building not necessary for public uses exclusively, as in the judgment of the governing body thereof may deem proper, for such sum or sums of money as they may deem for the best interests of such village; that the money received from such leases shall first be applied in payment of such necessary improvements and repairs as the governing body of such village shall have made from time to time, and the balance shall be applied to the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds as the same shall become due.

How money received from such leases to be applied.

4. And be it enacted, That at least one-twentieth of the principal sum of said bonds shall be raised each year by tax on all the taxable property in said village, and shall be applied in payment of the principal and interest of said bonds as the same shall fall due, and for no other purpose; that should no bonds or interest be due on which to apply said money as the same shall be raised, then in that case the governing body of such village shall appoint three responsible persons as sinking fund commissioners, who shall give bonds for the faithful discharge of their duties; that such commissioners shall have power and authority to invest said money in such manner and for such time as they shall deem for the best interests of such village, subject, however, to the approval of the governing body of such village.

One-twentieth of principal sum of said bonds shall be raised each year by tax on all taxable property.

When sinking fund commissioners shall be appointed.

5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 1, 1893.

CHAPTER XL.

An Act in relation to assessments of taxes in cities.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all incorporated cities of this state that now have or may hereafter have block maps, it shall be the duty of the taxing officer or officers in all cases, in making their assessments for taxes upon real estate, to describe the same by block and lot numbers as shown upon the assessment maps of the city.

Taxing officer in incorporated cities having block maps shall make assessments describing same by block numbers.

New owners of property shall have the change properly noted on the books and maps.

2. And be it enacted, That when any change occurs in the ownership of property in any such city, it shall be the duty of the new owner to present his deed, or other evidence of title, to the officer, officers or department having charge of the assessment of taxes therein, that the change of ownership may be properly noted on the books and maps kept by the said taxing officer or officers.

Deeds shall not be recorded unless it shall be duly certified thereon that the same have been presented at the office of the officer having charge of the assessment of taxes.

3. And be it enacted, That no register of deeds, county clerk or other officer whose duty it shall be to record deeds, shall record any deed which conveys any property in cities of this state that now have or may hereafter have block maps, unless it shall be duly certified thereon that the same has been presented at the office of the officer, officers, or other department having charge of the assessment of taxes, for the purpose of recording or noting such changes as may have been made thereby in the property lines and ownership of the property; provided, that nothing in this act shall prevent the recording of such deed in case a fee of twenty cents is paid at the time any such deed is deposited for record to the register of deeds, county clerk, or other officer whose duty it is to record the same, upon which payment having been made it shall be the duty of said register of deeds, county clerk or other officer, within five days thereafter to present such deed or an abstract thereof to the officer, officers or department having in charge the assessment of taxes, for the purpose of having such changes in lines of ownership as may be made thereby recorded or noted.

Proviso.

CHAPTER XLV.

An Act to authorize the acquisition by the United States of a tract of land in the township of Middletown, in the county of Monmouth and state of New Jersey, to be used for the purpose of erecting and maintaining thereon fortifications and accessories for the defence of the southern entrance to New York harbor.

WHEREAS, the United States has acquired, by purchase, a tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the township of Middletown, in the county of Monmouth and state of New Jersey, and which is more particularly described as follows : beginning at the government stone monument in southwest corner of the United States light-house reservation for Bayside beacon, on the south shore of Raritan bay and southeast of Point Comfort ; running thence north eleven degrees and forty-nine minutes west (N. $11^{\circ} 49' W.$) in a straight line, passing through a monument two hundred and two and eight-tenths ($202\frac{8}{10}$) feet from the point of beginning, a distance of three hundred and sixty-seven and sixty-two hundredths ($367\frac{62}{100}$) feet ; thence, south nineteen degrees and fifty-three minutes west (S. $19^{\circ} 53' W.$), three hundred and eighty-five and five-tenths ($385\frac{5}{10}$) feet ; thence, north, sixty-six degrees and forty-five minutes west (N. $66^{\circ} 45' W.$), thirteen hundred and seventy-six (1376) feet ; thence, south eleven degrees and fifty minutes east (S. $11^{\circ} 50' E.$), fourteen hundred feet ; thence, north seventy-eight degrees and ten minutes east (N. $78^{\circ} 10' E.$), seven hundred and forty-three and three-tenths ($743\frac{3}{10}$) feet ; and thence, north thirty-three degrees and fifty-nine minutes east (N. $33^{\circ} 59' E.$), eight hundred and sixteen and five-tenths ($816\frac{5}{10}$) feet to the point or place of beginning, containing twenty-five and seven hundred and thirty-four thousandths ($25\frac{734}{1000}$) acres ; therefore,

State of New Jersey cedes lands to the United States for fortifications,
&c.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the consent of the state of New Jersey is hereby given to the acquisition by the United States of the tract or parcel of land above described, and the same is hereby ceded to the United States of America; upon the said land so acquired the United States may erect fortifications, barracks, and other public buildings, for the defence of the southern or main entrance to New York harbor, and the United States shall have, hold, occupy and own said land thus acquired, and exercise jurisdiction and control over the same and every part thereof subject to the restrictions hereafter mentioned; the same, however, not to be used for quarantine purposes.

Description to be filed in office of secretary of state.

2. And be it enacted, That the jurisdiction hereby ceded shall vest when a plat and description of the land thus acquired shall have been filed in the office of the secretary of state of the state of New Jersey; such jurisdiction shall continue no longer than the United States shall own such land, and such consent is given and jurisdiction ceded upon the express condition that the state of New Jersey shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over such land so far as that all civil processes in all cases, and such criminal and other processes as may issue under the laws or authority of the state of New Jersey against any person or persons charged with crimes, misdemeanors or criminal offences committed within the state may be executed thereon, in the same way and manner as if such consent had not been given or jurisdiction ceded, except so far as such processes may affect the real or personal property of the United States.

Not taxable by the state.

3. And be it enacted, That so long as such land thus acquired shall remain the property of the United States, and no longer, the same shall be and continue exonerated from all taxes, assessments and other charges which may be levied or imposed under the authority of the State.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 7, 1893.

CHAPTER LII.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the formation of borough governments," approved April fifth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen whether the legal voters, residents of boroughs formed under and by virtue of the act entitled "An act for the formation of borough governments," approved April fifth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the several supplements thereto, are entitled to vote in the township out of which or from which the several boroughs were formed, or in the borough of which they are residents; now, therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the legal voters of all boroughs existing within any of the townships of this state and incorporated under the provisions of the act of which this is a supplement, shall hereafter in all elections vote within their several boroughs.

2. And be it enacted, That at the annual elections for borough officers, which are held on the same day that the town meetings are held in the various townships of this state, the legal voters of said boroughs shall not only be entitled to vote for such officers or appropriations as are authorized by the act entitled "An act for the formation of borough governments," approved April fifth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the several supplements thereto, but shall also be entitled to vote for a chosen freeholder for any township in which such borough is situated and of which it forms a part.

County boards of registration of registry and election for said boroughs.

3. And be it enacted, That the several county boards of registration shall appoint boards of registry and election and registry or poll clerks for the said boroughs of their respective counties, and that all elections held within the said boroughs shall be conducted under the provisions of the act entitled "An act to regulate elections," approved April eighteenth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and the several supplements thereto and amendments thereof.

Repealer.

4. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 7, 1893.

CHAPTER LIII.

An Act relating to cities of the third class.

Mayor and council in cities of third class may elect clerk.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful in cities of the third class of this state, having a mayor and council, for said mayor and council of said cities to elect a clerk, to fix his compensation and his term of office, and by resolution define the duties to be performed by said clerk.

Repealer.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 7, 1893.

CHAPTER LIV.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the formation and government of boroughs," approved April second, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

WHEREAS, Boroughs incorporated under the above mentioned act are empowered by said act to provide for the sewerage and drainage of such boroughs, but said act does not sufficiently set forth and define a manner of procedure for the exercise of the power so conferred by said act; now, therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever a petition in writing of any owner or owners of property interested shall be presented to the council of any borough asking for the construction of a sewer or sewers, drain or drains in such borough, the council of such borough may pass a resolution declaring its intention to cause such sewer or sewers, drain or drains to be constructed, and the said council shall cause public notice of such intention to be given by publishing the said notice of intention in a newspaper printed in the county for the space of two weeks, at least once in each week, briefly describing the character and location of the proposed work, and requesting such persons as may object thereto to present objections in writing to the clerk of the borough at or before the expiration of ten days from the date of such notice of intention, and if persons owning or representing more than one-half of the lineal feet of the land in front of which said proposed sewer or sewers, drain or drains is or are to be constructed shall so present their objections in writing, then such proceedings shall cease; but otherwise, and after the expiration of said ten days, it shall be lawful for such council to pass an ordinance for the construction of such sewer or sewers, drain or drains or such part or parts thereof covered by the notice of intention, as the council may deem advisable, and said ordinance so passed and approved by the mayor shall be published for the space of two weeks, at least once in each week, in a newspaper printed in the county in which said borough lies.

Council authorized to purchase lands.

2. And be it enacted, That the council shall have power to treat with the owner or owner of any lands across which any proposed sewer or drain is to be constructed for the purchase of the land necessary for the construction of said sewer or drain, or for the right to construct such sewer or drain across said lands, and the price paid for such land or paid for the right of way across said lands necessary for the construction of the sewer or drain shall form a part of the whole cost and expenses of said sewer or drain; and if the council cannot agree with the owner or owners as to the price to be paid, the council shall have the right to apply to the courts for the appointment of commissioners to condemn said land or right of way, and the proceedings in such case shall be those usually provided for by law in proceedings for condemnation.

May apply to the courts for appointment of commissioners to condemn land.

Shall advertise for bids.

Property to be assessed.

Owners notified to make advance payment.

Upon payment of fifty-five per cent. of entire cost council may award the contract.

3. And be it enacted, That after the passage of the ordinance and its approval by the mayor the council shall advertise for bids for constructing the work, and upon the basis of the bids received shall cause a preliminary assessment of the entire estimated cost of the work to be made upon the property fronting on said work covered by the ordinance, and when said preliminary assessment has been approved by the council each property owner so assessed shall be notified by the clerk of the borough and be requested to make an advance payment to the treasurer of the borough of the whole or any part of the amount assessed against said property owner on the above preliminary assessment, and said property owner shall receive from the treasurer a certificate or receipt of the amount so paid in as an advance payment on his sewer assessment, and when fifty-five per centum of the entire cost of the work is thus paid to the treasurer of the borough the council may award the contract and order the mayor to execute the same and the work may proceed, and if fifty-five per centum of the entire cost be not received by the treasurer of the borough before the expiration of sixty days after the approval by the council of the preliminary assessment the council shall rescind the ordinance, and the treasurer shall forthwith return to the several property owners the amounts respectively paid in, and all expenses for engineering, advertising and all other incidental expenses properly chargeable to the proposed work shall in that case be borne by the borough at large and included in the tax levy.

4. And be it enacted, That if upon completion of the work the treasurer has not sufficient money on hand from the advance payments made by the property owners interested to pay the entire cost and expenses of the work, or during the progress of the work to pay for any current estimate, he shall report the amount of the deficiency to the council; and it shall then be lawful for the borough to borrow the money necessary therefor, temporarily, upon promissory notes of the borough, or the borough may issue temporary improvement certificates, and said notes or certificates shall bear a rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, and shall not be issued for a term exceeding three years.

Council may borrow money,
&c.

5. And be it enacted, That upon completion of the entire work authorized by the ordinance, and its acceptance by the council, the council shall appoint three commissioners who shall be disinterested freeholders, not owning or interested in any lands along the line of the improvement, residing in the county in which such borough lies, to revise the preliminary assessment on the basis of the whole cost and expenses of the work duly ascertained (said whole cost and expense of the work to include the expense of engineering, superintendence and assessment, and all other incidental expenses properly chargeable to the work), and the council shall have power to fill any vacancy in the office of the commissioner, occurring from any cause, and said commissioners shall take and subscribe before some person duly authorized to administer the same, an oath or affirmation that they will make such assessment required of them fairly, impartially and legally, according to their best skill and understanding, which oath or affirmation shall be attached to the report that they are hereinafter required to make; and said commissioners having thus qualified shall proceed to revise said preliminary assessment on the basis of the whole

cost and expenses of the work duly ascertained, assessing upon the various plots and parcels of land and real estate which they deem benefited by the construction of said sewer or drain amounts proportionate to the benefits that have actually accrued to the various plots and parcels of land and real estate by reason of the construction of said sewer or drain, and in case the whole cost and expense of such work shall exceed the amount of the benefits so assessed upon the land and real estate, then the excess thereof shall be assessed upon and be paid by the borough at large, and be raised by general tax; and before signing the report of the assessment so made, the commissioners shall give public notice of the time and place when and where they will meet for the purpose of giving all persons interested in the same an opportunity to examine said assessment, and hearing any objections to the same that may be made, which notice is to be published in a newspaper printed in the county in which such borough lies for the space of two weeks, at least once in each week, and after such meeting the commissioners, having given due consideration to all objections that may be made, may amend the assessment in any manner they may deem just and equitable, and then shall proceed to complete such report of assessment by signing the same, and transmitting such report of assessment to the council, together with a map showing the various lots and parcels of land so assessed and the names of the owners of the various plots and parcels of land as far as they can be ascertained, with the amounts assessed against the same, and no error or omission in stating the name or names of the owner or owners of such lands shall invalidate the assessment; and the council shall then ratify the assessment so made without delay, and the same shall be final and conclusive as well upon the borough as upon the owners of land affected thereby; and such assessment shall be and remain a first lien upon the lands so assessed to the same extent as taxes and assessments are now a lien under the general laws of this state, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum; and the council shall immediately give public notice that such assessment has been ratified.

6. And be it enacted, That no certiorari shall be allowed by any court to review any of the proceedings in relation to such work, nor to affect in any way any assessments made by such commissioners, after the lapse of thirty days from the ratification of the council of the borough of such assessment; and such writ of certiorari shall not be allowed unless the party applying for the same shall enter into bond to such borough in sum of two hundred dollars, with two good and sufficient sureties, conditioned that such applicant shall prosecute the said certiorari; and shall pay to the said borough the cost and charges incurred by said borough necessary under the proceedings of the certiorari, with interest, if the assessment shall stand; and said bond to be approved by the court to which the application is made.

Certiorari not allowed by court after thirty days from ratification of assessment.

Party applying for writ shall give bond.

7. And be it enacted, That after the ratification of the said assessment, the treasurer of the borough shall credit upon each lot or parcel of land and real estate assessed the amount of the advance payment that may have been made by the owner thereof, under section three of this act, and the balance remaining unpaid upon the assessment shall then be collected as hereinafter provided; and if any owner of land has paid to the treasurer on his advance payments an amount greater than the amount of the assessment against his property, as shown upon such ratified assessment, then the difference shall be refunded to said owner by the treasurer of the borough.

Treasurer to credit amount of advance payment.

8. And be it enacted, That if any assessment upon any plot or parcel of land remains unpaid after the expiration of two years from the ratification of the assessment, then the collector of the borough shall proceed to enforce the collection thereof as now required of township collectors in this state; provided, however, that when any lands shall be sold against which an unpaid assessment for benefits for construction of a sewer has been returned, the same shall be sold free and clear of all incumbrances and the title thereto shall become an absolute title in fee simple to any purchaser after the expiration of two years from the date of the certificate of such sale, issued by the collector of said borough, in the same manner that certificates of sale are now issued where lands are sold to raise and pay taxes assessed and levied under the general

Collector to enforce collection thereof after two years.

Proviso.

laws of this state, and all proceedings under this act to sell lands to pay such assessments shall be carried on in the same manner and subject to the same rules observed and provided in this state for making the general taxes a first lien upon real estate and providing for the sale of the same, except as herein otherwise provided.

Council authorized to order the assessor to include whole amount in next tax levy.

9. And be it enacted, That the council of any borough, in which part of the costs and expenses for building any sewer or sewers, drain or drains has been assessed upon the borough at large, shall have the power to order the assessor of the borough to include the whole amount so assessed upon the borough in the tax levy next following the ratification of the assessment; or such council can, in its discretion, order the amount so assessed against the borough to be assessed and collected in not more than three yearly tax levies next following the ratification of the assessments.

Proceedings under the act to which this is supplement legal

10. And be it enacted, That if any borough which is incorporated under the act to which this act is a supplement shall have already begun proceedings for the purpose of constructing sewers or drains, as they are empowered by said act to do, all such proceedings shall have as full legal effect as if they had been taken after the passage of this act; provided, they have been taken in a manner set forth in this act, and they are hereby confirmed.

Proviso.

11. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 7, 1898.

CHAPTER LXVII.

An Act to authorize corporations incorporated under the laws of this state to merge and consolidate their corporate franchises and other property.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That any two or more corporations organized or to be organized under any law or laws of this state for the purpose of carrying on any kind of business of the same or a similar nature, may merge or consolidate such corporations into a single corporation, which may be either one of said merging or consolidating corporations, or a new corporation to be formed by means of such merger and consolidation.

Corporations incorporated under the laws of this state may merge and consolidate.

2. And be it enacted, That the said consolidation or merger shall be made under the conditions, provisions, restrictions, and with the powers hereafter mentioned and contained, that is to say :

How the consolidation or merger shall be made.

I. The directors of the several corporations proposing to merge or consolidate may enter into a joint agreement under the corporate seals of the respective corporations, for the merger or consolidation of said corporation, and prescribing the terms and conditions thereof, the mode of carrying the same into effect, the name of the new corporation (if one shall be so formed or created), or of the consolidated corporation, as the case may be; the number, names and places of residence of the first directors and officers of such new or consolidated corporation (who shall hold their offices until their successors shall be chosen or appointed, either according to law or according to the by-laws of the said corporation;) the number of shares of the capital stock, either common or preferred, and the amount or par value of each share of such new or consolidated corporation; and the manner of converting the capital stock of each of said merging or consolidating corporations into the stock or obligations of such new or consolidated corporation, and in case of the creation of a new corporation, how and when the directors and officers shall be chosen or appointed; together with all such other provisions and details as such first mentioned directors shall deem necessary to perfect the merger or consolidation of said corporation.

Mode of proceeding for the merger and consolidation of corporations.

Agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders.

Notice of the time, &c., of meeting.

Votes of the holders of two-thirds of all the capital stock required.

Agreement to be filed in office of secretary of state

Corporations merging or consolidating shall be taken to be one corporation.

II. The said agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of each of said merging or consolidating corporations, separately, at a meeting thereof, to be called for the purpose of taking the same into consideration; and twenty days' notice of the time, place and object of such meeting shall be mailed to the last known postoffice address of each of such stockholders respectively; and, at the said meetings of stockholders the said agreement of such directors shall be considered, and a vote of the stockholders of each corporation by ballot shall be taken separately, for the adoption or rejection of the same, each share of stock entitling the holder thereof to one vote, and said ballots shall be cast in person or by proxy; and if the votes of the holders of two-thirds of all the capital stock of each of the said merging or consolidating corporations shall be for the adoption of said agreement, then that fact shall be certified thereon by the secretary of each of the respective corporations, under the seal thereof, and the agreement, so adopted and so certified, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and shall from thence be deemed and taken to be the agreement and act of merger or consolidation of the said corporations, and a copy of said agreement and act of merger or consolidation, duly certified by the secretary of state under the seal thereof, shall be evidence of the existence of such new or consolidated corporation.

3. And be it enacted, That upon the making and perfecting the said agreement and act of merger or consolidation, as provided in the preceding section, and filing the same in the office of the secretary of state, as aforesaid, the several corporations, parties thereto, shall be deemed and taken to be one corporation, by the name provided in said agreement (in case a new corporation shall be created thereby), or by the name of the consolidated corporation into which said other contracting corporation or corporations shall be so merged or consolidated, as the case may be, and possessing all the rights, privileges, powers and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, and being subject to all the restrictions, disabilities and duties of each of such corporations so merged or consolidated, except as altered by the provisions of this act.

4. And be it enacted, That upon the consummation of said act of merger or consolidation, as aforesaid, all and singular, the rights, privileges, powers and franchises of each of said corporations, parties to the same, and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, as well for stock subscriptions as all other things in action or belonging to each of such corporations, shall be deemed and taken without further act or deed to be transferred to and vested in the corporation into which such merger or consolidation shall have been made; and all property rights, privileges, powers and franchises, and all and every other interest shall be thereafter as effectually the property of the said new or consolidated corporation as they were of the several and respective former corporations, parties to said agreement; and the title to any real estate, whether by deed or otherwise, under the laws of this state, vested in either of such corporations, shall not be deemed to revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this act; provided, however, that all rights of creditors and all liens upon the property of either of said former corporations shall be preserved unimpaired, and the respective former corporations may be deemed to continue in existence, in order to preserve the same; and all debts, liabilities and duties of either of said former corporations shall thenceforth attach to said new or consolidated corporation, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

Upon merging or consolidating, as aforesaid, all the rights, privileges, property, &c., of each corporation shall be vested in the new or consolidated corporation.

Proviso.

5. And be it enacted, That where the corporation or corporations authorized to merge or consolidate by the first section of this act, shall have the right to exercise any franchise, for public use, then if any stockholder of any corporation hereby authorized to be merged or consolidated with any other or others, not voting in favor of such agreement, shall dissent therefrom and shall refuse or neglect to convert his or her stock into the stock of such new or consolidated corporation, or to dispose there-

Any stockholder dissenting or refusing to convert his stock into the stock of the new or consolidated corporation may petition the court of common pleas for the appointment of appraisers.

CHAPTER LXVIII.

An Act to authorize street railway companies, or companies owning railroads operated as street railways to lease their property and franchises to any other street railway company, or railroad company operated as a street railway, and to authorize the lessees to provide for the financial and other management of the property and franchises so leased.

Street railway companies authorized to lease their property and franchises.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for any company owning any street railway or railways, or any company owning any railroad company operated as a street railway, whether such lessor company or companies are incorporated under any general or special act of this state, to lease their property and franchises to any other street railway company or railroad operated as a street railway created under the laws of this state and such other company or companies are hereby authorized to take such lease for such term or terms, upon such condition or conditions as to the use and operation of the property of the lessor corporation, the enjoyment of privileges of such lessor corporation according to the provisions and restrictions contained in any general act, or in the acts under which said lessor company was incorporated; and the amount of rent to be paid therefor, and the manner of making payment of said rent, and such other conditions, limitations and restrictions as said lessor and lessee corporations may agree upon; provided, that no greater tolls or charges shall be made or demanded by any lessee corporation than were or are authorized to be charged and collected for the same service by the corporation or corporations, lessor or lessors in said lease.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That any stockholder of any company or companies whose property and franchises shall be leased under the provisions of this act who shall not assent to such lease, or who shall resist or object to the making thereof, may at any time within thirty days after the making of such lease as in this act provided apply by petition to the circuit court of the county in which the chief office of the lessor corporation may be kept, or to a judge of said court in vacation, if no such court sits within such period, on reasonable notice to said company, to appoint three disinterested persons to estimate the damage, if any, done to such stockholder by said proposed lease; and whose award, or that of a majority of them, when confirmed by said court, shall be final and conclusive; and the persons so appointed shall also appraise said stock of such stockholder at the full market value thereof without regard to any depreciation or appreciation in consequence of the said lease; and the said lessor company may, at its election, either pay to the said stockholder the amount of damages so found and awarded, if any, or the value of the stock so ascertained and determined, and upon the payment of the value of the stock as aforesaid the said stockholder shall transfer the stock so held by him to said lessor company to be disposed of by the directors of said company or to be retained for the benefit of the remaining stockholders; and in case the value of said stock as aforesaid is not so paid within thirty days from the filing of said award and confirmation by said court, and notice to said lessor company, the damages so found and confirmed shall be a judgment against said company and collected as other judgments in said court are, by law, recoverable.

Any stockholder not assenting to such lease may petition the circuit court to appoint three disinterested persons to estimate the damage, whose award, when confirmed by the court, shall be final.

The value of said stock, if not paid, shall be a judgment against said corporations

3. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any corporation or corporations which shall become lessee of any such railroad or railway, under the provisions of this act, to purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of the shares of the capital stock, securities, or other evidences of debt issued or created by any other corporation or corporations organized under the law of this state, and to exercise, while owners of such stock, securities, or other evidences of debt, all the rights, powers and privileges, including the right to vote on such stock, which natural persons, being the owners of such stock, securities, or other evidences of debt, might, could or would exercise.

Proviso.

4. And be it enacted, That any corporation, so becoming a lessee corporation under and by virtue of the provisions of this act, may increase its capital stock to such amount as may be determined by its board of directors; provided, that such corporation shall, previous to issuing of any such stock, file in the office of the secretary of state a certificate, signed by its president and under its corporate seal attested by its secretary, setting forth the amount of the proposed increase of capital stock and the number of shares into which the same is to be divided, and also the assent in writing of stockholders owning at least two-thirds in value of the existing capital stock to said increase of capital stock.

Lessee may borrow money,
issue bonds, &c.

5. And be it enacted, That any corporation so becoming a lessee corporation under and by virtue of the provisions of this act shall have the right to borrow from time to time such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the financial and other management of the property, not exceeding at any one time the total amount of authorized capital stock of such lessee corporation, and for the repayment thereof may issue bonds registered or with coupons or interest certificates thereto attached or both, secured by a mortgage or mortgages, covering all the corporate franchises, rights, privileges, assets, real and personal, of such mortgagor corporation, including stock and securities of such corporation or in any other corporation whose stock or securities it owns, which mortgage may be recorded as mortgages of real estate are or hereafter may be by law required to be recorded, in the office of the clerk or register of deeds of the county or counties in which the railway or railways described in said mortgage may be located, and in the office of the clerk or register of deeds of the county in which the principal office of such corporation is situate, and such record or the lodgment of such mortgage in such clerk's or register's office for record shall have the same force, operation and effect as to all judgment creditors, purchasers or mortgagees in good faith, as the record or lodgment for that purpose of mortgages of real estate now

CHAPTER LXXII.

An Act concerning the collection of arrears of taxes in cities of this state.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in any city of this state in which the collection of arrears of taxes is now performed by deputy collectors of arrears of taxes, it shall and may be lawful for the receiver of taxes of such city, or other officer who has heretofore appointed the said deputy collectors in said city, to appoint, with the sanction and consent of the finance committee or board of finance of said city, such additional deputy collectors as may from time to time be necessary for the prompt and efficient collection of the arrears of taxes in said city; and said additional deputies shall have the same powers, perform the same duties and be subject to the same requirements as the said deputy collectors of arrears of taxes are now subject to in said city.

The receiver of taxes authorized to appoint, with the consent of finance committee or board of finance, additional deputy collectors.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 9, 1893.

CHAPTER LXXIII.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act to provide for sewage and drainage in incorporated townships in which there is a public water supply," approved April fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

Commissioners of assessment shall assess both for direct and prospective benefits all lands benefited or to be benefited.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever in strict conformity with the provisions of section eight of the act to which this is a further supplement, commissioners of assessment so appointed by the circuit court shall determine that the sewage district or drainage area extends so as to include lands lying in adjacent cities, towns or townships, and that the drainage from such cities, towns or townships does or may discharge through the sewer or sewers which may have been constructed under the provisions of the act of which this is a further supplement; that the said commissioners shall assess both for direct and prospective benefits all such lands benefited or to be benefited within the said entire drainage area, and that said assessments for benefits so assessed shall be a lien upon the lots, plots or parcels of land lying in the said adjacent cities, towns or townships respectively assessed.

2. And be it enacted, That upon the confirmation of the assessment made in conformity with the act of which this is a further supplement the clerk of the township through which the said sewer or sewers have been constructed shall file with each of the clerks of the adjacent cities, towns or townships whose lands are included in the aforesaid assessment a copy of the report of the said commissioners; that it shall be the duty of each of the collectors in said adjacent cities, towns or townships to enter the said assessments, so far as it applies to his municipality, into a book to be kept in his office for the purpose, and he shall give notice for four weeks in some newspaper circulating in the said municipality that the said assessment report is on file and requiring payment of the several sums assessed against any owner of lands and real estate for such improvement within thirty days from and after the confirmation of said report by the circuit court of the said county; and in case said assessment shall remain unpaid at the expiration of the thirty days from and after the first publication of said notice, the said assessment shall draw interest thereupon from and after that time at a rate of one per centum per month, except the assessments for prospective benefits, which shall be governed as provided for in section two of the supplement of the act of which this is a further supplement, approved March twenty-fifth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one; and the governing bodies of said adjacent cities, towns or townships affected by said assessment shall have the same powers and rights to enforce the payments of said assessments as they have to enforce the collection of taxes or assessments by like proceedings.

3. And be it enacted, That all moneys collected on account of the aforesaid assessment by the respective adjacent cities, towns or townships shall be kept in a separate fund, which fund shall be applied to reimbursing the town through which the said sewer or sewers may have been constructed for such expenses, as said town may have incurred in the carrying out of said improvements; and it shall be the duty of the governing bodies of the

CHAPTER LXXIV.

An Act to provide for the widening and constructing of roads or streets lying along or adjacent to the boundary lines of municipal corporations.

Governing body of incorporated town or township, upon presentation of petition, authorized to widen and improve road or streets.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in any incorporated town or township in this state in which there exists a public road or street having a width of thirty (30) feet or less and lying wholly within the corporate boundary of such town or township, it shall be lawful for the council or other governing body of said town or township, upon the presentation of a petition signed by property owners representing one-third of the total frontage on said road or street, to cause such road or street to be widened and improved, as hereinafter provided for.

Lawful to cause surveys, maps, &c., made by civil engineer, upon adoption of said maps, shall pass ordinance defining limit of said improvement.

2. And be it enacted, That upon the receipt and adoption of the said petition by the council or other governing body of the said town or township, it shall be lawful to cause to be made surveys, maps, profiles and grades by a competent civil engineer, sufficient to establish new lines for the widening of said road or street, and upon the adoption of said maps, profiles and grades the said council or other governing body shall pass an ordinance defining the limit of the said improvement, which shall be advertised for two weeks in at least one newspaper circulating in said town or township and also in any adjacent or neighboring municipalities affected by the said improvement.

3. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the circuit court of the county in which any lands or real estate which may be benefited by said improvement are situated, on application in writing made on behalf of said council or other governing body of said town or township, to appoint three disinterested commissioners, who shall make an estimate and assessment of the damages any owner or owners will sustain as well as for the taking of his, her or their lands or real estate with the appurtenances, as for the injury to the owner or owners by reason of the intended improvement; the said commissioners shall be sworn to make just, and impartial awards and assessments of the costs, and shall present without delay to the said court a report in writing and accompanied by a map of such award and assessment, which shall be sufficient if signed by a majority of said commissioners; and that the said commissioners in making assessments for benefits for such widening shall take into careful consideration and shall assess all the lands benefited by the said improvement, both in the town or township through which the said road or street may be constructed, and also all lands lying in neighboring or adjacent municipalities; but no assessment shall be made against any land greater than the benefit received from such widening, and that said assessment for benefits so assessed shall be a lien upon the lots or plots or parcels of land lying in the said adjacent cities, towns or townships respectively assessed; that the said circuit court shall direct notice to be given by advertising in some newspaper circulating in said county for at least ten days, stating the time and place at which said court shall proceed to consider said report and any objections that may be made in writing thereto; and shall have power to consider the said report and objections thereto in a summary manner, and to revise and to confirm said report and accompanying map with or without alterations; said report, when confirmed by the court, and duly certified by the county clerk, shall at all times be

On application circuit court may appoint commissioners to make assessment of damages of land owners.

Commissioners shall be sworn and present a report in writing accompanied by a map of such award and assessment.

No assessment shall be greater than benefit received.

4. And be it enacted, That upon the confirmation of the assessment as above provided for, the clerk of the town or township through which the said road or street lies shall file with each of the clerks of the adjacent cities, towns or townships whose lands are included in the aforesaid assessment a copy of the report of the said commissioners; that it shall be the duty of each of the collectors in said adjacent cities, towns or townships whose lands are assessed to enter the said assessment, so far as it applies to his municipality, into a book to be kept in his office for the purpose, and he shall give notice for two weeks in some newspaper circulating in his municipality, that the said assessment report is on file and requiring payment of the several sums assessed against any owner of lands and real estate for such improvement within thirty days from and after the confirmation of said report by the circuit court of the said county, and in case said assessment shall remain unpaid at the expiration of thirty days from and after the first publication of said notice, the said assessment shall draw interest thereupon from and after that time at the rate of one per centum per month; and the governing body of said adjacent city, town or township affected by said assessment shall have the same powers and rights to enforce the payments of said assessments as they have to enforce the collection of taxes or assessments by like proceedings.

Unpaid assessments draw interest.

Governing body have power to enforce collection of assessments.

5. And be it enacted, That all moneys collected on account of the aforesaid assessment by the respective adjacent cities, towns or townships whose lands are so assessed shall be kept in a separate fund, which fund shall be applied to reimbursing the town through which the road or street lies for such expenses as said town may have incurred in the carrying out of said improvements; and it shall be the duties of the governing bodies of the said adjacent cities, towns or townships to pay over to the governing bodies of the aforesaid town or townships in which the said road lies, on demand, such sums of money as may have been collected whenever demand is made therefor.

Moneys collected by adjacent cities and towns to be a separate fund.

Governing bodies shall pay over money when demanded.

6. And be it enacted, That in order to meet the necessary cost of said widening of such road or street and the proceeds relating thereto as mentioned in this act, the council or other governing body of the town or township through which said road or street lies may borrow the necessary money therefor temporarily upon the promissory notes of such corporation or may issue temporary improvement certificates in such form as said council or other governing body may prescribe; said notes and certificates shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, and shall be payable at the expiration of not more than two years from the date of issue, and all receipts from assessments made against property benefited as herein above provided shall be paid to the treasurer of said town or township, and shall be applied to the payment of such temporary indebtedness incurred by the said town or township therefor.

Governing body may borrow money temporarily.

Notes on improvement certificates draw interest not exceeding six per cent.

said town or township may authorize, upon the receipt of a petition signed by property owners representing one-half the frontage on said road or street, asking for the improvement, by ordinance or ordinances passed and adopted by such council or other governing body, the construction of said road or street upon the lines, profiles and grades as described and laid down in the plans adopted as provided for in section two of the act; and shall employ a competent civil engineer to prepare specifications and details, and to supervise and direct such improvement.

8. And be it enacted, That the costs and expenses incurred for making any improvement or performing any work under and by virtue of the provisions of section seven of this act shall be assessed upon the lands and real estate specially benefited, in proportion to the benefits received thereby, but not exceeding the amount of such benefits; when such work is completed, the said common council or other governing body of such town or township shall apply to the circuit court of the county in which such township is situated; and on application, in writing, made by or on behalf of the council of said town or township or other governing body, and after notice of the time and place of making such application, published at least ten days previously in some newspaper circulating in said county, the circuit court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners, who shall make an estimate and assessment of the benefits that any lands and real estate may specially receive by the making of such improvements or public works; and if any of said commissioners die or refuse to act, the said court shall immediately make appointment of a proper person to fill any vacancy so created; the said commissioners shall be sworn to make a just and impartial estimate and assessment, and they shall assess upon the several lots or parcels of land benefited by such improvement a sum in proportion to the benefit received by each of said lots or parcels of lands, and no lot or parcel of land shall be assessed more than it is benefited; and the said commissioners shall, in making the assessment for such improvement, take into careful consideration, and shall assess all lands benefited by the said improvement, both in the town or township through which the said road or street may be constructed, and also all lands lying in neighboring or adjacent municipalities, and that said assessment for benefits so assessed shall be a lien upon the lots or plots or parcels of land lying in the said adjacent cities, towns or townships respectfully assessed; that the said circuit court shall direct notice to be given, by advertisement in some newspaper circulating in said county, for at least ten days, stating the time and place at which said court shall proceed to consider said report and any objections that may be made in writing thereto, and shall have the power to consider the said report and objections thereto in a summary manner, and to revise and to confirm said report and accompanying map, with or without alterations; the court shall settle and determine the compensation to be paid said commissioners, and the cost and expenses of the application and report, which shall be paid by the council or other governing body of said town or township on behalf of which the application is made.

Notice to be given of time and place to consider report and any objections.

Court shall determine compensation of commissioners and cost and expenses.

9. And be it enacted, That upon the confirmation of the assessment as above provided for by section eight of this act, the clerk of the town or township through which the said road or street lies shall file with each of the clerks of the adjacent cities, towns or townships whose lands are included in the aforesaid assessment, a copy of the report of the said commissioners; that it shall be the duty of each of the collectors of said adjacent cities, towns or townships whose lands are assessed to enter the said assessment so far as it applies to his municipality, into a book to be kept in his office for the purpose, and he shall give notice for two weeks in some newspaper circulating in his municipality, that the said assessment report is on file and requiring payment of the several sums assessed against any owner of lands and real estate for such improvement, within thirty days from and after the confirmation of said report by the circuit court of the said county, and in case said assessment shall remain unpaid at the expiration of the thirty days from and after the first publication of said notice, the said assessment shall draw interest thereupon from and after that time at a rate of one per centum per month; and the governing body of said adjacent cities, town or township affected by said assessment, shall have the same powers and rights to enforce the payments of said assessment as they have to enforce the collection of taxes or assessments by like proceedings.

Moneys collected kept in a separate fund and paid by governing bodies on demand

10. And be it enacted, That all moneys collected on account of the aforesaid assessment by the respective adjacent cities, towns or townships whose lands are so assessed shall be kept in a separate fund, which fund shall be applied to reimbursing the town through the road or street lies for such expenses as said town may have incurred in the carrying out of such improvements; and it shall be the duty of the governing bodies of the said adjacent cities, towns or townships to pay over to the governing bodies of the aforesaid town or township in which said road lies, on demand, such sums of money as may have been collected whenever demand is made therefor.

Governing body may borrow money on notes or certificates.

11. And be it enacted, That in order to meet the expenses for the construction of said street or road and of the proceedings in relation thereto, as mentioned in this act, the council of the said town or other governing body may borrow the money necessary therefor, temporarily, upon the promissory notes of such corporation, or may issue temporary improvement certificates from time to time as the work progresses in such form as the said council of said town or other governing body may prescribe; said notes and certificates shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, and shall be payable at the expiration of not more than two years from the date of issue; all receipts from assessments made against property benefited by such improvements shall be paid to the treasurer of the said town or township, and shall be applied to the payment for such improvements or to the payment of any temporary indebtedness incurred by the said town or township therefor.

Notes and certificates bear interest not exceeding six per cent.

Receipts from assessments to be paid to town treasurer.

Governing bodies may issue bonds, to run ten years, six per cent. interest.

12. And be it enacted, That in order to provide for so much of the cost of such improvements as may be required to be paid by any city, town or township, or for any notes or certificates of indebtedness issued therefor which may remain unpaid, it shall and may be lawful for such city or town or township to issue bonds to run for a period not to exceed ten years and to bear interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, which said bonds shall be styled improvement bonds, shall be issued in such denomination as the governing bodies of the several municipalities may determine, and be executed under the corporate seal of the said municipality, signed by the proper official; coupons for every half year's interest shall be attached to each bond and numbered to correspond thereto, or the said bonds may be registered, at the option of the holder; they shall be sold for not less than their par value, and the proceeds thereof shall be used to pay the portion of the costs, damages and expenses of said improvements and public works required to be paid by such municipality as aforesaid, and to take up and pay off such temporary notes or certificates as have been given in payment of such costs and expenses that may be outstanding; provided, that in order to meet the interest on said bonds and redeem the same at maturity, it shall be the duty of the council or other governing bodies of such municipalities to order the interest thereon, together with a sinking fund of not less than five per centum of the total amount of said issue, to be raised in the annual tax levy.

Bonds not sold less than par value.

CHAPTER LXXV.

An Act to prohibit the laying or construction of any street or horse railroad along the streets of any municipality of this state without the consent of the governing body having the control of the streets in such municipality.

Unlawful to lay or construct street or horse railroad without consent of governing body having control of streets, &c.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That hereafter it shall be unlawful for any street or horse railroad company, organized under the act entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation of horse or street railway companies, and to regulate the same," approved April sixth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six; or any special or local act authorizing or incorporating any street or horse railroad company, to lay or construct any railroad track or tracks, or any extension of the same through or along any street of any municipality of this state without first obtaining the consent of the common council, board of aldermen, board of public works, or other governing body having the control of the public streets, avenues or roads of said municipality, or along the streets of which municipality said railroad company desires or intends to construct its said railroad.

On attempt to construct street railroad without consent of governing body the attorney-general, upon application, shall apply to court of chancery for order to forfeit the charter.

2. And be it enacted, That if any street or horse railroad company, incorporated under any general or special act, shall construct or attempt to construct any railroad through or upon any street, avenue or road of any municipality of this state without first obtaining the consent of the city council, board of aldermen, board of public works, or other governing body having the control of the streets, avenues or roads of said municipality, it shall be the duty of the attorney-general, upon the application of five residents of any municipality wherein said street or horse railroad company shall construct or attempt to construct said railroad, to apply to the court of chancery for an order to forfeit the charter of said street or horse railroad company, which said court of chancery may upon the applications make an order declaring void and of no effect the charter or authority of said railroad company to construct, maintain and operate said railroad, and upon the making and filing of such order the rights of said street or horse railroad company shall be thereupon forfeited and of no force.

3. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general, special or local, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately. Repealer.

such acts as may be necessary and proper to effectually carry out such contracts; and any such contracts made by any railroad company or companies, as aforesaid, with said cities or either of them are hereby fully authorized, ratified and confirmed.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 9, 1893.

CHAPTER LXXVIII.

An Act supplemental to an act entitled "An act relative to the supreme and circuit courts," approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; and also for the appointment of three judges to hold said circuit courts and to define their powers.

Circuit court judges to be appointed by the governor.

Vacancy filled.

Term of office.

Salary.

Powers of said judges.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, that there shall be nominated by the governor and appointed by him, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, three judges, each of whom shall be empowered to hold, in the absence of a justice of the supreme court, the respective circuit courts in every county of this state; and in like manner there shall be appointed successors to said judges respectively, when said offices or any of them shall become vacant by death, expiration of the official term of the incumbents, or otherwise; that each of said judges shall hold his office for the term of seven years from the date of his commission and shall receive an annual salary of seven thousand five hundred dollars, payable monthly, in equal installments, by the treasurer of the state.

2. And be it enacted, That the said judges so to be appointed, and each of them, shall have the same authority, power and jurisdiction, by virtue of their said office as is now vested by the common and statute law in the several justices of the supreme court by reason of their being judges of said circuit courts.

3. And be it enacted, That the issues of the supreme court when sent down for trial, may be disposed of by consent of the parties in the manner following, to wit: a jury being waived, the justice of the supreme court may refer the matter for trial to the judge holding the county circuit court of the given county, who shall thereupon proceed to try the cause, either with or without a jury, as the said parties may agree; and the result of said trial having been reported to the said justice the same shall be received as conclusive evidence in the trial before him; and the supreme court shall be authorized to grant new trials in such procedures as in other cases.

Manner of disposing of supreme court issues.

4. And be it enacted, That the supreme court may from time to time assign and appoint any of said circuit county court judges to hold such of such circuit courts as may be deemed expedient.

Supreme court may assign circuit court judges to hold court.

5. And be it enacted, That if it shall happen that any of said circuit court judges shall be prevented from attending any of said courts at any time or times, or from continuing the business therein transacting, the same proceedings, and the same results shall ensue as now obtain by law in case of a like default on the part of a justice of the supreme court.

Proceedings on failure of attendance of judges.

6. And be it enacted, That each of said judges shall, before he shall enter upon the duties of his said office, take and subscribe the following oath: I do solemnly promise and swear (or affirm) that I shall administer justice without respect to persons, and faithfully and impartially perform all the duties incumbent on me as a judge of the circuit courts of the counties of this state according to the best of my ability and understanding, agreeably to the constitution and laws of the state of New Jersey, so help me God.

Oath of judge.

7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 9, 1893.

CHAPTER LXXIX.

An Act concerning railroads.

Railroad corporations may purchase franchises of any other railroad sold by decree of court.

Proviso.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever the railroad and franchises of any railroad corporation of this state or any part or parcel of the same has heretofore been or shall hereafter be sold in pursuance or by virtue of a decree, order or judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction it shall be lawful for any other railroad corporation of this state which owns, leases or operates a railroad having a physical connection therewith to purchase the said railroad and franchises so sold or to be sold, or any part or parcel of the same, either at the said sale or thereafter, from the purchaser or purchasers thereof, or from his, her or their heirs or assigns; and when such sale to the said purchasing railroad corporation shall be completed, the said railroad and franchises, or the part or parcel thereof so sold and purchased shall vest in and be merged with and become a component part of the railroad and franchises of the said railroad corporation so as aforesaid purchasing the same; provided, that the railroad corporation so purchasing shall file or cause to be filed a correct and accurate map and route of the railroad, or the part or parcel thereof so purchased, in the office of the secretary of state of this state.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 9, 1893.

CHAPTER LXXX.

An Act concerning the taking of property for public use.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That all reports of commissioners hereafter appointed by any court or by any justice of the supreme court to appraise the damages for the taking of lands or other property for public use shall be made or filed on or before a day to be fixed in the order of appointment, unless the court or justice shall by order extend the time, in which case the report shall be made on or before the day limited by said court or justice, and every appeal from such report shall be taken within five days after the day thus fixed.

Reports of commissioners appointed to appraise damages for taking lands for public use to be filed.

2. And be it enacted, That whenever an appeal shall be filed from an award of damages by commissioners heretofore or hereafter appointed in any proceeding for the taking of property for public use, notice in writing of such appeal shall be given by the party appealing to the other party within ten days after the filing of the petition of appeal, by service of such notice upon each person interested personally or by leaving at his residence if he resides in the state, or by service upon his attorney if any, who shall have appeared for him before the commissioners or any other attorney authorized to appear for him, and in case of a corporation, service may be made on such attorney or on any officer or agent upon whom a summons in an action at law against the company may be lawfully served; where it shall appear by affidavit that any person or corporation being a party to the proceedings is a non-resident of the state, or can not be found therein to be served, in such case notice shall be given in such manner as a judge of the court to which the appeal is taken may direct; the said notice of appeal shall set forth that an appeal has been taken from the award of the commissioners, and shall specify the time and place when and where the appellant will apply to the court to which such appeal is taken or any judge thereof to frame the issue and to fix a day for the striking of the jury, and a day for the trial of the appeal, which time named for said application shall be not less than five nor more than ten days from the date of service of the notice, but the court or judge may by order change the time or place on the application of either party and direct what notice of such change shall be given to the other party.

Proceedings when appeal filed from award of damages by commissioners.

Court shall fix day for trial of appeal.

3. And be it enacted, That after an appeal to any court from the award of commissioners appointed to assess the damages for the taking of lands or other property for public use by condemnation shall have been filed, and notice thereof shall have been given as above provided, the court to which such appeal is taken or any judge thereof on application of either party shall fix a day for the trial of the appeal either during the term or vacation when such appeal shall be filed or during the following term or vacation, which day so fixed shall be not less than twenty nor more than forty days from the date of the order, and the court or judge shall also at the same time make an order framing the issue between the parties and directing a jury to be struck and a view of the premises and property to be had, and fixing a day and place for the striking of the jury for the trial of the appeal, which day shall be at least ten days before the day fixed for the trial of the appeal, and the filing of the order shall be notice to all parties of the day and place fixed thereby for the striking of the jury and of the trial, and the jury having been struck and the jurors summoned as required by law the cause shall be tried upon the day and at the place fixed unless for good cause shown the court shall adjourn the trial to another day which the court shall fix, in which case the court shall, in its discretion, either direct the same jurors to attend or order another jury to be struck and summoned in like manner, and all parties shall take notice of the day and place fixed for the adjourned trial.

Trial by struck jury

Trial may be adjourned.

Repealer, &c.

4. And be it enacted, That all acts or provisions inconsistent with the provisions of this act shall be and are hereby repealed, and the practice prescribed by this act shall supersede the existing practice in all condemnation cases before commissioners or on appeal, so far as the provisions of this act shall extend, and the court shall make such further orders and take such further proceedings as may be requisite according to the practice of the court and the several statutes regulating appeals and the trials thereof in condemnation cases and may permit such amendments of the proceedings and plans as may be reasonable and proper for the fair trial of the case or for the promotion of the public purposes for which the power to condemn was conferred.

5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 9, 1893.

CHAPTER LXXXI.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the formation and government of boroughs," approved March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That no bonds heretofore issued by any borough under the act entitled "An act for the formation and government of boroughs," approved March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, for the purpose of raising money to defray the expense of laying out, grading or improving any street or streets, sidewalk or sidewalks in said borough, shall be held invalid because the borough council has not passed an ordinance providing for such improvements, but that all such bonds heretofore issued pursuant to a resolution of the council of such borough, under the common seal and the signature of the mayor of such borough, and attested by the clerk thereof, shall have the same legal effect as though the act to which this is a supplement had been complied with in every particular; provided, however, that the work for the payment of which such bonds may

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning cities of the first class in this state and constituting municipal boards of street and water commissioners therein, and defining the powers and duties of such municipal boards and relating to the municipal affairs and departments of such cities, placed under the control and management of such boards, and providing for the maintenance of the same," approved March twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Section to be amended.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section six of the act to which this is a supplement, be amended so as to read as follows, viz.:

One-half of license fees to be set aside for repaving, &c.

6. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for that board of the city government having charge of the finances thereof, to instruct the city treasurer and city comptroller in any city of the first class to set aside and keep apart out of the license fees received in such city for licenses to sell spirituous or malt liquors, or to keep restaurants or hotels, one-half thereof for the repaving, repairing, and improving of paved streets and public places in such city, whenever in the judgment of such board there shall not be sufficient funds otherwise provided for that purpose, and said moneys when so set apart shall be disbursed, applied and expended for such purposes by said board of street and water commissioners, exclusive of any other board or authority whatever, and for no other purpose.

2. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this act shall apply to any moneys received from license fees in any city during the current year of the granting of such licenses, and the same shall be applied to the payment of any of said work or labor or materials furnished for such work already done or to be done, or that may be contracted for during the current year of the granting of such licenses.

Applies to moneys received current year.

3. And be it enacted, That the said board of street and water commissioners may by a unanimous vote, at any time, out of said funds when so set aside, cause any part of a main thoroughfare in such city to be improved or paved or both, although the same may not have theretofore been paved.

Said fund used

Bonds to be filed and recorded.

14. And be it enacted, That it shall also be the duty of said wardens annually to make an approximate estimate and detailed statement in writing of the amounts of money required for the support and maintenance of said hospitals and of the amount required from the state, including all salaries and supplies of every kind for the next ensuing fiscal year beginning on the first day of November next, and to submit the same to said managers, on or before the first Thursday of November of each year, and said managers shall annex the same to their annual report, with such comments thereon as they may deem advisable.

Wardens annually make estimate of money required.

15. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of said managers to appoint for each of said hospitals an expert accountant or bookkeeper, and such assistant accountants and bookkeepers as may be necessary to keep full and accurate accounts of all business transactions in any way connected with said hospitals.

Bookkeepers, how appointed.

16. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of said managers to appoint a storekeeper for each of said hospitals, who shall receipt for and be charged with all supplies furnished to said hospitals, and take vouchers for all supplies by them distributed, and they shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by said managers, subject to such rules, regulations and by laws as said managers may from time to time prescribe.

shall be obligatory on all officers and agents of said hospitals, and such by-laws shall not be suspended, altered or repealed, except at a regular meeting of said board of managers, and by the consent of a majority of all the members of said board.

Exempt from jury duties, &c.

18. And be it enacted, That the resident officers of the said hospitals, and all attendants and assistants actually employed therein, during the time of such employment shall be exempt from serving on juries, and in time of peace from all service in the militia; and the certificate of the medical director or warden, for their respective departments, shall be evidence of the fact of such employment.

Books to be open for inspection.

19. And be it enacted, That the board of managers shall keep, in bound books to be kept for that purpose, a fair and full record of all their doings, which shall be open at all times to the inspection of the governor of the state, and all persons whom he or either house of the legislature may appoint to examine the same.

How often managers shall visit the hospitals, &c.

20. And be it enacted, That the managers shall maintain an effective inspection of the said hospitals, for which purpose one of them, or more, shall visit each of them at least once in every week; two or more, at least once in every month, a majority at least once in every three months, and the whole board once a year, at the time and in the manner prescribed in the by-laws; in a book to be kept for that purpose, the visiting manager or managers shall note the date of each visit, the condition of the patients, with remarks of commendation or censure, and all the managers present shall sign the same; the general results of these inspections, with suitable hints, shall be inserted in an annual report detailing the past year's operations and actual state of the hospitals, which the managers shall make to the governor, on or before the fifteenth day of November in each year, to be by him presented to the legislature, accompanied with an annual report of the medical director, warden and treasurer.

Annual report

Wardens make all purchases,
contracts, &c.

25. And be it enacted, That the respective wardens of said hospitals shall, under the direction of the board of managers or pursuant to the rules, by-laws and regulations established by said board, make all purchases for said hospitals and preserve the original receipts given on payment thereof, and keep full and accurate accounts of the same and copies of all orders drawn by them upon the treasurer; they shall also in like manner make contracts with all attendants, assistants and employees, and keep and settle their accounts; they shall also keep and render to the proper parties the accounts for the support of patients and expenses incurred in their behalf; they shall make quarterly abstracts of their accounts to the last days of January, April, July and October, for the proper treasurer and the managers; they shall also be accountable for the careful keeping and economical use of all furniture, stores and other articles provided for said hospitals, and shall, annually, during the third week in October, make out and furnish the managers with a true and perfect inventory, verified by oath, of all the personal property belonging to the hospital and in and about the premises, with an appraisal thereof, made under oath or affirmation by the warden and two suitable persons whom the managers shall appoint for that purpose. Make an inventory annually, verified by oath.

26. And be it enacted, That no person shall be admitted into said hospitals as a patient, except upon an order of some court or judge authorized to send patients, without lodging with the medical director—first, a request, under the hand of the person by whose direction he is sent, stating his age and place of nativity, if known, his christian name and surname, place of residence, occupation, and degree of relationship, or other circumstances of connection between him and the person requesting his admission; and second, a certificate dated within one month, under oath, signed by two reputable physicians, of the fact of his being insane; each person signing such request or certificate shall annex to his name his profession or occupation, and the township, county and state of his residence, unless these facts appear on the face of the document. How and upon whose order patients admitted.

27. And be it enacted, That the medical directors shall make, in books kept for the purpose, at the time of reception, a minute with date, of the name, residence, office and occupation of the person by whom and by whose authority each person is brought to said hospitals, and have all the orders, warrants, requests, certificates, and other papers accompanying him, carefully filed, and forthwith copied into said book. Further duties of medical directors.

28. And be it enacted, That each county entitled to send patients to said hospitals, under said rules and regulations, may at all times keep such number of patients, in just proportion with other counties, as the hospitals can accommodate, which proportion shall be regulated by the managers; if any one or more of the counties should not send their full proportion, the vacancies may be allotted Proportion of patients counties may have.

29. And be it enacted, That whenever any pauper, chargeable in the county entitled to send patients to said hospital under said rules and regulations, may be insane, it shall be the duty of the overseer of the poor in the township wherein he resides, to make application in his behalf to any judge of the court of common pleas of the county; and said judge shall call one reputable physician, and fully investigate the facts of the case, and if satisfied, after such examination, of the insanity of the pauper and that he is a proper subject to be admitted to either of said hospitals, he shall issue an order to such overseer, which shall be effectual when approved as hereinafter provided, requiring him without delay to take such insane pauper to the proper hospital, where he shall be kept and supported at the expense of the county in which is his residence until he shall be restored to soundness of mind, or removed or discharged therefrom according to law; the judge in such case shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and shall present the certificate of the physician, taken under oath, and other papers relating thereto, and a statement of the proceedings and decision, to the chosen freeholders or freeholder, if there be but one by law, (or but one acting by reason of the death, sickness or other disability of the other,) of the township where such insane person is found, who shall examine the same, and if satisfied that said person has a legal settlement in their county as defined by the act entitled "An act for the settlement and relief of the poor," approved April tenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and is entitled to the relief afforded by this act, shall endorse the word "approved" upon said certificate and proceedings, and shall sign their official names thereto; which said certificate and proceedings shall be filed with the clerk of the county, who shall forward to the medical director of the hospital where such insane pauper is confined, copies of said proceedings and certificate authenticated by the clerk under seal of the court, and report the facts to the board of chosen freeholders, whose duty it shall be to raise the money requisite to meet the expenses of support, and, as soon thereafter as practicable pay it to the treasurer of the proper hospital; but if said freeholders shall not be satisfied as aforesaid, they shall endorse on said certificate and proceedings the words "not approved" and shall sign their official names thereto, and the same shall then be filed with the clerk of the board of chosen freeholders, and said insane pauper shall not be admitted to the said hospital at the expense of the said county. When not admitted at expense of county.

30. And be it enacted, That when a person residing in this county entitled to send patients to said hospitals under said rules and regulations, and in indigent circumstances, not a pauper, becomes insane, application may be made in his behalf to any judge of the court of common pleas of the county where he resides; and said judge shall call a reputable physician and other credible witnesses, and fully investigate the facts of the case, and either with or without the verdict of a jury, at his discretion, decide the case as to his insanity and indigence; and if the said judge shall make a certificate that satisfactory proof has been adduced, showing him to be insane, and his estate insufficient to support him and his family (or if he has no family, himself), under the visitation of insanity, on such certificate, authenticated by the county clerk, under the seal of the court, he shall be admitted into the proper one of said hospitals, and supported there, at the expense of said county, until he shall be restored to soundness of mind, or removed or discharged therefrom according to law; the said judge in such case shall have requisite power to compel the attendance of witnesses and jurors and shall file the certificate of the physician, taken under oath, and other papers relating thereto, with a report of his proceedings and decision, with the clerk of the county, and report the fact to the board of chosen freeholders, whose duty it shall be to raise money requisite to meet the expenses of support, and, as soon thereafter as practicable, pay it to the treasurer of the proper hospital; provided, however, that if such investigation be made without summoning a jury therein, the said certificate and proceedings shall be presented to the freeholder or freeholders of the township where such indigent person is found, who shall examine and proceed thereon in all respects and with the same force and effect How insane in indigent circumstances admitted at expense of county.

as is provided in that behalf in the last preceding section of this act; and the clerk of said county shall, if said freeholders approve said certificate and proceedings, report the facts to the board of freeholders, whose duty it shall then be to provide for the expenses of the support of said insane person, and pay the amount as soon as practicable to the treasurer of the proper hospital.

Authorized to make special agreements.

31. And be it enacted, That the managers may authorize the medical directors to admit, under special agreements, whenever there are vacancies in said hospitals, such cases as may seek admission.

Duties of town and county officers.

32. And be it enacted, That all town and county officers sending a patient to said hospitals shall, before sending him, see that he is in a state of perfect bodily cleanliness, and is comfortably clothed provided with suitable changes of raiment, as prescribed in the by-laws.

How persons acquitted upon trial upon plea of insanity admitted at expense of county.

33. And be it enacted, That when a person shall have escaped indictment, or have been acquitted of a criminal charge upon trial, on the ground of insanity, upon the plea pleaded of insanity, or otherwise, the court being certified by the jury or otherwise of the fact, shall carefully inquire and ascertain whether his insanity in any degree continues, and if it does, shall order him in safe custody, and to be sent to the hospital prescribed by the rules and regulations aforesaid; the county from which he is sent shall defray all his expenses while there, and of sending him back, if returned; but the county may recover the amount so paid from his own estate, if he has any, or from any relative or county that would have been bound to provide for and maintain him elsewhere.

How person confined under indictment, &c., appearing insane,
admitted at expense of county.

34. And be it enacted, That if any person in confinement, under indictment or for want of bail for good behavior, or for keeping the peace, or appearing as a witness, or in consequence of any summary conviction, or by order of any justice, or under any other than civil process, shall appear to be insane, the judge of the circuit court of the county where he is confined shall institute a careful investigation, call a reputable physician and other credible witnesses, invite the prosecutor of the pleas to aid in the examination, and, if he shall deem it necessary, call a jury, and for that purpose is fully empowered to compel the attendance of witnesses and jurors, and if it be satisfactorily proved that he is insane, said judge may discharge him from imprisonment, and order his safe custody and removal to one of said hospitals, prescribed by the rules and regulations aforesaid, where he shall remain until restored to his right mind; and then, if the said judge shall have so directed, the medical director shall inform the said judge and the county clerk and prosecutor of the pleas thereof, whereupon he shall be remanded to prison, and criminal proceedings be resumed, or otherwise discharged; the provisions of the last preceding section, requiring the county to defray the expenses of a patient sent to such hospital, shall be equally applicable to similar expenses arising under this section and the one next following.

35. And be it enacted, That persons charged with misdemeanors, and acquitted on the ground of insanity, may be kept in custody and sent to the hospital, prescribed by said rules and regulations, in the same way as persons charged with crime.

Persons charged with misdemeanors acquitted on insanity, sent to hospital.

36. And be it enacted, That the price to be paid for keeping any person in indigent circumstances in the said hospitals, exclusive of clothing, shall be annually fixed by the managers, and shall not exceed three dollars per week.

Price indigent persons shall pay.

37. And be it enacted, That every insane person supported in said hospitals shall be personally liable for his maintenance therein and all necessary expenses incurred by the institution in his behalf; and the committee, relative, or county that would have been bound by law to provide for and support him, if he had not been sent to the hospital, shall be liable to pay the expenses of his clothing and maintenance therein, and actual necessary expenses to and from the same.

Personally liable for maintenance and expenses incurred.

38. And be it enacted, That the expenses of clothing and maintenance in said hospitals, of a patient who has been received upon the order of any court or judge, shall be paid by the county from which he was sent to such hospital; the county collector of said county is authorized and directed to pay to the treasurer of such hospital the bills for such clothing and maintenance, as they shall become due and payable, according to the by-laws thereof, upon the order of the warden; and the chosen freeholders of the said county shall annually levy and raise the amount of such bills, and such further sum as will probably cover all similar bills for one year in advance; said county, however, shall have the right to require every individual or county that is legally liable for the support of such patient, to reimburse the amount of said bills, with interest from the day of paying the same.

Expenses of removing county patients paid by the county.

39. And be it enacted, That whenever the managers shall order a patient removed from either of said hospitals to the county whence he came, the collector of said county shall audit and pay the actual and reasonable expenses of such removal, as part of the expenses of said county; but if any person be legally liable for the support of such patient, the amount of such expenses may be recovered, for the use of the county, by said collector; if such collector neglect or refuse to pay such expenses on demand, the treasurer of the proper hospital may pay the same, and charge the amount to said county, and the county collector shall pay the same with interest; and the chosen freeholders of said county shall levy and raise the amount, as other county charges.

Township or county authorized to recover amount of payments.

40. And be it enacted, That every township or county paying for the support of a patient in either of said hospitals, or for his expenses in going to or from the same, shall have the like rights and remedies to recover the amounts of such payments, with interest from the time of paying such bills, as if such expenses had been incurred for the support of the same, at other places under existing laws.

Authority of court of chancery not restrained.

41. And be it enacted, That none of the provisions of this act shall restrain or abridge the power and authority of the court of chancery over the persons and property of the insane.

When and by whom patients may be discharged.

42. And be it enacted, That the said managers, upon the certificate of the medical director of a complete recovery, may discharge any patient, except those under a criminal charge, or liable to be removed to prison; and they may send back to the poorhouse of the county or township whence he came, any person admitted as "dangerous," who has been two years in either of said hospitals, upon the medical director's certificate that he is harmless and will probably continue so, and not likely to be improved by further treatment in the said hospital; or when the hospital is full, upon a like certificate that he is manifestly incurable, and can probably be rendered comfortable at the poorhouse, they may also discharge and deliver any patient, except one under criminal charge as aforesaid, to the poorhouse of the township or county liable for his support, or to his relatives or friends, who will undertake, with good and approved sureties, for his peaceable behavior, safe custody and comfortable maintenance, without further public charge.

43. And be it enacted, That a patient of a criminal class may be discharged by order of one of the justices of the supreme court, if, upon due investigation, it shall appear safe, legal and right to make such order.

Justice of supreme court may order discharge of criminal patient.

44. And be it enacted, That no patient shall be discharged without suitable clothing, and if it cannot be otherwise obtained, the warden shall, upon the order of two managers, furnish it; also money, not exceeding ten dollars, to defray his necessary expenses, until he reaches home.

Money and clothing furnished.

45. And be it enacted, That said board of managers shall receive their actual traveling expenses, to be paid by the state treasurer, on the warrant of the comptroller, on the rendering of their accounts; no court, judge, clerk or other officer shall receive any compensation for any services performed under this act.

Traveling expenses paid, no compensation for services.

46. And be it enacted, That all purchases for the use of said hospitals shall be made for cash, and not on credit or time.

All purchases
shall be for cash.

47. And be it enacted, The terms "lunatic" and "insane," as used in this act, include every species of insanity, and extend to all deranged persons and to all of unsound minds, other than idiots; a word denoting the singular number is to include one or many; and every word importing the masculine gender only, may extend to and include females.

Meaning of term
"lunatic" and
"insane."

48. And be it enacted, That there shall be paid from the state treasury, in quarterly payments, and upon the warrant of the comptroller, to the treasurers of the said hospitals, the sum of one dollar per week towards the maintenance and keep of each indigent patient in said hospitals.

Amount to be paid by state for each indigent patient.

How and when judge shall order insane pauper removed to a hospital.

49. And be it enacted, That if the judge to whom application shall be made on behalf of any insane pauper shall be satisfied upon the examination of the case made in the manner prescribed in section twenty-nine of this act, that such insane pauper cannot be provided for by the overseer of the poor of the township, or at the poorhouse of the township or county upon which he is chargeable, with comfort and without danger or prejudice to himself or others, the said judge shall order the said pauper to be removed to one of said hospitals, to be kept and supported in the manner and for the time in the said section mentioned.

Upon removing a patient from one hospital to the other, the official documents and papers must be delivered to medical directors.

50. And be it enacted, That when any patient shall be removed from one of the said hospitals to the other, under the rules and regulations hereinbefore authorized and directed, it shall be the duty of the medical director of the hospital from which he is removed, to deliver to the medical director of the hospital to which he is removed, the official documents and papers under the authority of which the said patient was received and under which he is retained, and the said documents and papers shall be as full and ample authority for detaining such patient in the hospital to which he is removed, as if such patient had not been so removed.

Repealer.

51. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith or repugnant hereto, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 11, 1893.

provided, the court shall find that such association was in default as charged, whereupon the commissioner of banking and insurance shall re-instate such association, and not until then shall such association be allowed to again do business in this state; any officer, agent or person acting for any association or subordinate body thereof, within this state, while such association shall be so enjoined or prohibited from doing business pursuant to this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Penalty when officer or agent violates this act

15. And be it enacted, That any person who shall act within this state as an officer, agent or otherwise, for any association which shall have failed, neglected or refused to comply with, or shall have violated any of the provisions of this act, or shall have failed or neglected to procure from the commissioner of banking and insurance proper certificates of authority to transact business, as provided for by this act, shall be subject to the penalty provided in the last preceding section for the misdemeanor therein specified.

Applies to fraternal beneficiary associations only.

Lodges not affected.

16. And be it enacted, That this act shall not apply to any corporation, society or association carrying on the business of life, health, casualty or accident insurance for profit or gain, but it shall apply to fraternal beneficiary associations only, as defined in section one of this act; this act shall not affect or apply to any grand or subordinate lodges of the ancient order of free and accepted masons, in dependent order of odd fellows, improved order of red men, junior order of American mechanics, as they now exist, nor of the knights of Pythias (exclusive of the endowment rank), nor to similar orders, nor to any association not working on the lodge system, or which limits its certificate holders to a particular class, or to the employees of a particular town or city, designated firm, business house or corporation.

Fees, and to whom paid.

17. And be it enacted, That every association to which this act shall be applicable shall pay the following fees to the commissioner of banking and insurance, for defraying the expenses of this act, viz.:

For filing the declaration or a certified copy of charter required by this act, ten dollars;

For filing the annual report therein provided, five dollars;

For every copy of any paper filed or recorded in his office, eight cents per folio;

For affixing his official seal on such copy, and certifying same, one dollar.

18. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately. Repealer

Approved March 11, 1893.

CHAPTER CXXIX.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning street railroad companies," approved March sixth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section two of the act entitled "An act concerning street railroad companies," approved March sixth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, be and the same is hereby amended so that said section shall read as follows: Section to be amended.

2. And be it enacted, That any street or horse railway company in this state may use electric or chemical motors, or grip cables, as the propelling power of its cars, instead of horses; provided, it shall have first obtained the consent of the township committee, or the municipal authorities having charge of the public streets or highways on which it is proposed to use such motors or grip cables, which consent may be granted by ordinance. Authorized to use electric motors or grip cables.

2. And be it enacted, That the municipal board, or any county public road board, or other authorities having the charge or control of any streets, highways or avenues in Municipal board, &c., by ordinance, may authorize use of poles in public streets.

any city, county, town or township of this state may, when they deem it proper, authorize the use of poles located or to be located in the public streets or highways with wires strung thereon for the purpose of supplying the motors with electricity, and when a board grants such authority it may in such case prescribe the manner in which, and the places where such poles shall be located, and the manner in which the wires shall be strung thereon, and the same may be authorized and prescribed by ordinance.

Consent heretofore granted valid.

3. And be it enacted, That any consent heretofore granted, contingent or otherwise, whether by resolution or in any other way by any municipality to any street or horse railway company to use electric or chemical motors or grip cables as the propelling power of its cars, of the construction and character in such ordinance or resolution specified, or of which the plan of construction has been or may be in any way assented to or approved by such municipal authorities, shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been granted pursuant to the provisions of this act to the extent authorized by this act; provided, however, that no such consent heretofore granted shall be validated by virtue of anything in this act contained, without the assent and approval of the state board of commissioners of electrical subways first had and obtained.

Proviso.

Duties of commissioners of electrical subways not curtailed.

4. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall curtail, abridge or otherwise interfere with any of the powers and duties of the state board of commissioners of electrical subways.

Repealer.

5. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 11, 1893.

CHAPTER CXXXVIII.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to amend an act concerning corporations," approved April seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, which amendatory act was approved March twentieth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Attorney-general to proceed in court of chancery for appointment of a receiver.

Final decree to be entered and fieri facias issued.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That after any corporation of this state has failed and neglected for the space of two consecutive years to pay the taxes imposed upon it by law, and the comptroller of this state shall have reported such corporation to the governor of this state, as provided in said amendatory act, then it shall be lawful for the attorney general of this state to proceed against said corporation in the court of chancery of this state for the appointment of a receiver, or otherwise, and the said court in such proceeding shall ascertain the amount of the taxes remaining due and unpaid by such corporation to the state of New Jersey, and shall enter a final decree for the amount so ascertained, and thereupon a fieri facias or other process shall issue for the collection of the same as other debts are collected, and if no property which may be seized and sold on fieri facias shall be found within the said state of New Jersey, sufficient to pay such decree, the said court shall further order and decree that the said corporation, within ten days from and after the service of notice of such decree upon any officer of said corporation upon whom service of process may be lawfully made, or such notice as the court shall direct, shall assign and transfer to the trustee or receiver appointed by the court, any chose in action, or any patent or patents, or any assignment of, or license under any patented invention or inventions owned by, leased or licensed to or controlled in whole or in part by said corporation, to be sold by said receiver or trustee for the satisfaction of such decree, and no injunction theretofore issued nor any forfeiture of the charter of any such corporation shall be held to exempt such corporation from compliance with such order of the court; and if the said corporation shall neglect or refuse within ten days from and after the service of notice of such decree to assign and transfer the same to such receiver or trustee for sale as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of said court to appoint a trustee to make the assignment of the same, in the name and on behalf of such corporation, to the receiver or trustee appointed to make such sale, and the said receiver or trustee shall thereupon, after such notice and in such manner as required for the sale under fieri facias of personal property, sell the same to the highest bidder, and the said receiver or trustee, upon the payment of the purchase money, shall execute and deliver to such purchaser an assignment and transfer of all the patents and interests of the corporation so sold, which assignment or transfer shall vest in the purchaser a valid title to all the right, title and interest whatsoever of the said corporation therein, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the payment of such unpaid taxes, together with the costs of said proceedings.

Court shall order assignment of any chose in action, &c., to receiver appointed, to be sold to satisfy amount due.

No injunction theretofore issued shall exempt from compliance with such order.

When trustee to be appointed to make assignment.

Sell to highest bidder

Proceeds of sale, how applied.

2. And be it enacted, That whenever it is established to the satisfaction of the governor that any corporation named in said proclamation has not neglected or refused to pay said tax within two consecutive years, or has been inadvertently reported to the governor by the comptroller as refusing or neglecting to pay the same as aforesaid, that the governor be and he is hereby authorized to correct such mistake, and to make the same known by filing his proclamation to that effect in the office of the secretary of state.

When and by whom mistakes corrected.

8. And be it enacted, That that this act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER CLIV.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the formation of borough governments," approved April fifth, one thousand eighteen hundred and seventy-eight.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be lawful for any borough organized under the act to which this is a supplement, to order and cause, by contract or otherwise, sewers and drains to be constructed in any part of such borough, and to provide, maintain and alter a general system of sewerage and drainage for such borough, or any part thereof, conformably to which all sewers and drains shall be constructed, and to establish and maintain one or more outlets or places of deposit, within or without such borough, for sewerage and drainage from such borough, and to repair and cleanse such sewers and drains. Authorized to provide, &c., system of sewerage, establish outlets or places of deposit, &c.

2. And be it enacted, That whenever a petition in writing of any owners of property interested, not less than ten, shall be presented to the mayor and council of such borough, asking for the construction of a sewer or drain in the whole or any particular section of such borough, When the mayor or council shall adopt resolution declaring intention.

it shall be lawful for such mayor or council to adopt a resolution declaring its intention to cause such sewers or drains to be constructed; and the said council shall forthwith cause public notice of such intention to be given by its mayor in two or more newspapers printed or circulating in such borough, for the space of ten days, briefly describing the proposed work, and the section or part of such borough to be affected, and requesting such persons as may object thereto to present their objections in writing at or before the expiration of ten days from date of such notice, to the officers signing the same; and if persons owning or representing more than one-half of the whole lineal frontage of land along the streets through which it is proposed to construct any sewer or drain, shall so present their objections in writing, then such proceedings shall cease, but not otherwise; and after the expiration of said ten days, it shall be lawful for such mayor and council to adopt an ordinance for the construction of such sewers or drains, to award contracts for the same, or for any part or section thereof, and to take all necessary steps for properly carrying into effect the desired improvement.

8. And be it enacted, That if, in the judgement of the said mayor and council, the construction of such sewer or drain is likely to benefit and increase the value of lands and any real estate in the vicinity thereof, the said council shall apply to the judge of the circuit court of the county wherein such borough is situate, for the appointment of commissioners to estimate and assess such benefits, of the time and place of which application notice shall be given by ten days' publication in two newspapers printed within the county and circulating within such borough, at which time and place, or at such other time and place as the said judge shall designate, said judge shall, without unnecessary delay, appoint three commissioners, who shall be freeholders of such borough making the application, to estimate and assess the said benefits; the said judge shall have power to remove any commissioner and appoint another in his place, and also to fill any vacancy that may occur in the office of any commissioner from any cause; the said commissioners before entering upon the execution of the duties required of them by this act, shall take and subscribe, before some person duly authorized to administer the same, an oath or affirmation that they will make all estimates and assessments required of them fairly, legally and equitably, according to the best of their skill and understanding, which oath or affirmation shall be attached to the report that they are hereinafter required to make.

Oath of commissioners.

4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, having thus qualified, shall give notice, under the direction of the clerk of the county in which said borough shall be located, and said clerk shall transmit a certified copy of the report, and rule or order of said court confirming the same, and also a certified copy of the map accompanying the same, to the treasurer of such borough. And filed with the clerk.

7. And be it enacted, That no certiorari shall be allowed by any court to review any of the proceedings in relation to such improvement, nor to in any way affect any assessments made by such commissioners, after the lapse of thirty days from the making of the order of the court confirming such assessments; the court shall designate what notice, if any, shall be given, by publication or otherwise, of the confirmation of the report of said commissioners. Limit of certiorari. Confirmation of report

8. And be it enacted, That all assessments made under the provisions of this act shall be and remain a first lien upon the lands and real estate affected thereby, notwithstanding any error or omission in stating the name or names of the owner or owners of such lands and real estate, to the same extent as taxes and assessments are now a lien under the general laws of this state, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum. Assessment a first lien Rate of interest.

9. And be it enacted, That the mayor and council may pay the expenses of any such improvement by the issue of temporary improvement certificates from time to time as the work progresses, in such form as the council may prescribe; said certificates shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, to be fixed by the council, and shall be payable at the expiration of not more than three years from the date of their issue. May issue improvement certificates. When payable.

10. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the mayor and council of any such borough to incorporate in the annual tax levy, in each year, such amount as shall be required to be paid by such borough at large, or on account of any such improvement made, in the next preceding fiscal year, over and above the total amount of the assessment made against the lands and real estate peculiarly benefited; and the same shall be raised by general taxes, and the moneys received for assessments, and the moneys so raised by the general tax for the purpose aforesaid, shall be raised for and exclusively applied to the payment for such improvement, or to the payment of any temporary indebtedness incurred by the said Amount required put in annual tax levy Money raised by general taxes applied to payment of bonds or certificates issued.

11. And be it enacted, That the mayor and council of such borough shall order an election to determine whether bonds shall be issued to procure money for the payment of the cost and expenses of the proposed improvement, and shall designate the time and place for holding the same, and appoint judges and inspectors thereof; the polls shall be open from ten o'clock in the forenoon until three o'clock in the afternoon, and every person who is now authorized to vote at the corporate election in such borough, may vote at such election; on the tickets voted at such election shall be printed or written "for the issue of bonds," or "against the issue of bonds," and the judge and inspectors shall certify the result of said election to the clerk of the county in which borough is situated.

12. And be it enacted, That if there shall be a majority of votes cast in favor of the issue of bonds it shall then be lawful for the mayor and council of such borough to issue registered or coupon bonds of said borough, such issue being hereby expressly authorized for the purpose of providing funds to pay for such improvements; the bonds may be made payable at times to be therein specified, not more than twenty years after date, but so that an equal amount shall fall due each year after the first, the rate of interest not to exceed six per centum, and the denominations to be fixed by the mayor and council issuing the same; the bonds shall be of two classes, namely, "assessment bonds," which shall be paid out of the assessments for benefits, made by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, against lands benefited, and "sewer bonds," which shall represent the cost of the improvement above the amount assessed for benefits.

13. And be it enacted, That any land owner whose lands may be subject to an assessment for benefits derived from the construction of such sewer may have his lands released at any time by paying to the treasurer of the borough the full amount assessed against his property with interest at six per centum; it shall be the duty of the county clerk to file in his office the receipt of the treasurer for any such payment and also to enter upon the assessment list and map a short memorandum showing that the assessment against such land owners and lands has been paid, and thereafter such lands shall be free from the lien of such assessment and shall not be liable to any assessment or tax to raise money to provide for the payment of assessments against any other property or the bonds mentioned in this act as "assessment bonds," but shall remain liable for any tax that shall be levied to provide for the payment of that part of the costs which is charged to the borough at large, or for the payment of any certificates or bonds issued therefor.

14. And be it enacted, That if a majority shall at such election vote against the issue of bonds, then the said mayor and council shall have power to issue certificates to pay for the cost of such work; such certificates shall bind the land assessed for benefits, and be a lien upon the same to the extent that each lot or parcel may be assessed as hereinbefore provided; and the same shall be a paramount lien upon said lands respectively, until the amounts due from each of the respective owners shall be paid, and the record of the assessment cancelled as herein provided; in issuing such certificates the mayor and council may also include the amount of any damages assessed against the borough at large, but such certificates shall be distinguished from those issued to represent the amount assessed for benefits; and the whole issue of certificates shall be divided into three classes, one-third to mature in one year, one-third in two years and one-third in three years; and to provide for their payment it shall be the duty of the borough assessor to assess and levy the tax for the same in the manner herein provided for the payment of bonds, certificates or other indebtedness incurred for such improvement.

CHAPTER CLXVI.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of courts of law," approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

How to revive and re-instate action or suit when failure to file pleadings caused by neglect, &c., of attorney.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That where any action or suit has heretofore been commenced in either the supreme or circuit courts of this state, either under or by virtue of any statute or at common law, and said action or suit has been dismissed, abated and judgment of non prosequi entered by reason of the failure of any attorney to file any pleading within the time limited by law, it shall be lawful for either of said courts or any justice thereof to revive and re-instate said case upon such terms as may seem to him equitable and just, if in the opinion of said court or justice the facts in said cause show that the failure to file said pleadings was on account of the neglect, fault, error or mistake of said attorney, and that great injury and wrong would result either to the plaintiff or defendant.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 14, 1893.

CHAPTER CLXVII.

A Further Supplement to "An act concerning roads" (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

WHEREAS, By reason of the opening and grading of streets and avenues in new towns and colonies in various portions of this state, parts of old laid out roads running through the wild lands thereof have become useless and practically abandoned, the said new streets and avenues affording better access to the same points than by the said parts of old roads; and whereas, for small changes or vacations, proceedings under the present act to which this is a supplement, are both expensive and troublesome, and attended with much delay, so much so, that few persons are willing for the public good to incur the expenses of such proceedings; for remedy whereof,

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever ten or more persons, being freeholders, shall think the vacation of a part of any public road necessary in any part of the county wherein they reside, they may make application in writing to the inferior court of common pleas of such county, or to one of the judges thereof, setting forth in writing the road or portion thereof, which it is proposed to have vacated, describing the same by courses and distances, to which description there shall be attached a map showing the location of the road, or portion thereof to be vacated, and if within ten days after such application shall have been made, as aforesaid, or if at the time of making such application, there shall be presented to said court or judge the consent in writing of the owners of all the lands by such old road or portion thereof proposed to be vacated, and also the written consent of the township committee of the township wherein such lands do lie, that such applica-

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 14, 1893.

CHAPTER CLXVIII.

An Act to enable street railway companies, or companies owning railroads operated as street railways, to unite and consolidate their corporate franchises and other property with those of traction companies and to prescribe a method therefor.

Authorized to merge and consolidate.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for any street railway company or other company owning a railroad operated as a street railway, incorporated under any law of this state, to merge and consolidate its property and franchises with those of any motor power company created under any law of this state.

Consolidation made under conditions, provisions, &c.

2. And be it enacted, That said consolidation shall be made under the conditions, provisions, restrictions and with the powers hereafter in this act mentioned and contained, that is to say:

Directors prescribe terms and conditions, &c.

I. The directors of the several corporations proposing to consolidate may enter into a joint agreement, under the corporate seal of the company, for the consolidation of said companies and railways, and prescribing the terms and conditions thereof, the mode of carrying the same into effect, the name of the new corporation, the number and names of the directors and other officers thereof, who shall be the first directors and officers, and their places of residence, the number of shares of the capital stock, the amount or par value of each share and the manner of converting the capital stock of each of the said companies into the new corporation, and how and when directors and officers shall be chosen, with such other details as they shall deem necessary to perfect such new organization and the consolidation of said companies or railways;

II. Said agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of each of said companies or corporations at a meeting thereof, called separately, for the purpose of taking the same into consideration; due notice of the time and place of holding such meeting, and the object thereof, shall be delivered to such persons respectively, or sent to them by mail, when their post office address is known to the company; and, also, by a general notice published in some newspaper in the city, town or county where such company has its principal office or place of business; and at said meeting of stockholders the agreement of the said directors shall be considered, and a vote, by ballot, taken by each company separately, for the adoption or rejection of the same, each share entitling the holder thereof to one vote; and said ballots shall be cast in person or by proxy, and if two-thirds of all the votes of all the stockholders, voting separately, shall be for adoption of said agreement, then that the fact shall be certified thereon by the secretary of the respective companies, under the seal thereof; and the agreement so adopted, or a certified copy thereof, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and shall, from thence, be deemed and taken to be the agreement and act of consolidation of the said companies; and a copy of said agreement and act of consolidation, duly certified by the secretary of state, under the seal of his office, shall be evidence of the existence of said new corporation.

CHAPTER CLXXII.

An Act to authorize the formation of traction companies for the construction and operation of street railways, or railroads operated as street railways, and to regulate the same.

Authorized to organize corporation to construct machinery, &c., for supplying motive power to street railways.

Powers of corporation, &c.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall and may be lawful for three or more persons, one of whom shall be a resident of the state of New Jersey, to associate themselves into a corporation for the construction and operation of motors, cables and other machinery for supplying motive power to street railways, or other railroads operated as street railways, and the necessary apparatus for applying the same; and such corporation when formed in accordance with the provisions of this act shall have power to enter upon any street, road, lane, alley or other highway upon which any street railway, or other railroad operated as a street railway, is now or may hereafter be constructed (with the consent of the owner or owners, lessee or lessees of such railway or of the person or persons operating the same), and make, construct, apply, maintain and operate such railway, motors, cables, electrical or other devices and appliances, with power to erect, construct, apply, maintain and use such tunnels, subways, for cables, poles, wire, conduits or other devices for transmitting and using electrical or other forces, as will provide for the traction of cars on street railways, or other railroads operated as street railways, and to construct lines of street or passenger railway, and all necessary turnouts, sidings and bridges on, along, through or over any street, road, lane, alley, stream or highway, either by extension of existing railways or by the building of new lines thereon, either wholly within or partly within, or wholly between or partly within and between cities, towns, boroughs, villages, townships and counties, and the same when constructed to equip, maintain, use and operate for the carriage of persons and property for compensation to be made such corporation, and to contract with any other person or persons, natural or artificial, for such construction, equipment, maintenance, use or operation, and to purchase, hold, sell, pledge, mortgage or otherwise dispose of any capital stock or securities of any other corporations owning, using, leasing or operating any street railway or other railroad operated as a street railway, turnpike or plank road, or engaged in the construction or equipment thereof, or in creating or supplying power of any kind for the operation thereof, and to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges in respect to such capital stock and securities, incidental to the use and ownership thereof, which any natural person or persons might, could or would do, and to purchase, hold, sell or otherwise dispose of such real or personal property as may be convenient or necessary for the use of the corporations created under this act, and to pledge or mortgage the same with the franchises of such corporations; provided, that no corporation Proviso. created under this act shall enter upon or use any street, road, lane, alley, or other highway, under color or by virtue of this act, for the extension or construction of new lines of railway, or for the operation thereof, without the consent of the board of aldermen, common council or body having control of streets or highways, or other governing body of the city, town, borough, village, township or county, into or within the limits of which such new line of railways is proposed to be extended, constructed or operated, nor shall any corporation created under this act possess the power to use on any of its railways, within the limits of any street and in the surface thereof, any locomotive or other engine moving on its rails, which is propelled by steam; provided, further, that Proviso. the adoption of any motor or motive power herein authorized to be used, shall not be deemed to preclude change to any other motor or motive power herein authorized, when and as often as the business of such corporation may from time to time in its judgment so require.

2. And be it enacted, That all corporations created under this act shall, in addition to the preceding, possess of consolidation.

Conditions, &c.,

19. And be it enacted, That such consolidation or consolidations shall be made under the conditions, provisions, restrictions and with the powers hereafter in this act mentioned and contained, that is to say :

Directors to enter into joint agreement.

I. The directors of the several corporations proposing to consolidate may enter into a joint agreement under the corporate seal of the respective companies for the consolidation of said companies and railways, and prescribing the terms and conditions thereof, the mode of carrying the same into effect, the name of the new corporation, the number and names of the directors and other officers thereof, and who shall be the first directors and officers, and their places of residence, the amount and number of shares of the capital stock, the par value of each share and the manner of converting the capital stock of each of the said companies into the new corporation, and how and when directors and officers shall be chosen, with such other details as they shall deem necessary to perfect such new organization and the consolidation of said companies and railways ;

Agreement to be submitted to stockholders.

Notice to be given.

II. Said agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of each of the said companies or corporations at a meeting thereof, called separately, for the purpose of taking the same into consideration ; due notice of the time and place of holding such meetings, and the object thereof, shall be delivered to such persons respectively, or sent to them by mail when their postoffice address is known to the company, and also, by a general notice published in some newspaper in the city, town or county where such company has its principal office or place of business ; and at said meeting of stockholders the agreement of the said directors shall be considered and a vote, by ballot, taken by each company separately, for the adoption or rejection of the same, each share entitling the holder thereof to one vote ; and said ballot shall be cast in person or by proxy, and if two-thirds of all the votes of all the stockholders, voting separately, shall be for adoption of said agreement, then that fact shall be certified thereon by the secretary of the respective companies under the seal thereof and a certificate under the seal of the company signed by the secretary and president certifying to the fact of consolidation, the name to be used by such consolidated company under and by virtue of the provisions of this act, and the amount of the authorized capital stock of such consolidated company shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and shall from thence be deemed and taken to be the evidence of the agreement and act of consolidation of the said companies; and a copy of said certificate duly certified by the secretary of state, under the seal of his office, shall be evidence of the existence of said new corporation.

Certificate of result, &c, to be filed.

20. And be it enacted, That upon the making and perfecting the agreement and act of consolidation as aforesaid and filing the said certificate or a copy with the secretary of state as aforesaid, the several corporations parties thereto, with the amount of capital stock set out in said certificate, shall be deemed and taken to be one corporation by the name provided in said agreement and act, possessing within this state all rights, privileges and franchises and subject to all the restrictions, disabilities and duties of each of such corporations so consolidated.

When deemed to be one corporation.

21. And be it enacted, That upon the consummation of said act of consolidation as aforesaid, all and singular the rights, privileges and franchises of each of said corporations parties to the same, and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, as well as stock subscriptions and other things in action belonging to each of such corporations, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such new corporation without further act or deed; and all property, all rights of way and all and every other interest shall be as effectually the property of the new corporation as they were of the former corporations, parties to said agreement; and the title to real estate, either by deed or otherwise, under the laws of this state vested in either of such corporations shall not be deemed to revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this act; provided, however, that all rights of creditors and all liens upon the property of either of said corporations shall be preserved unimpaired, and the respective corporations may be deemed to continue in existence to preserve the same; and all debts, liabilities and duties of either of said companies shall thenceforth attach to said new corporation and be enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

How suits may be brought.

22. And be it enacted, That suits may be brought and maintained against such company in any of the courts of this state in the same manner as against other railroad companies therein.

Persons to be appointed to estimate damages when stockholder refuses to convert his stock.

23. And be it enacted, That any stockholder of any company hereby authorized to consolidate with any other, who shall refuse to convert his stock into the stock of the consolidated company, may at any time within thirty days after the adoption of the said agreement of consolidation by the stockholders, as is in this act provided, apply, by petition, to the circuit court of the county in which the chief office of said company may be kept, or to a judge of said court in vacation, if no such court sits within the said period, on reasonable notice to said company, to appoint three disinterested persons to estimate the damage, if any, done to such stockholder by said proposed consolidation, and whose award, or that of a majority of them, when confirmed by the said court, shall be final and conclusive, and the persons so appointed shall also appraise said stock of such stockholder at the full market value thereof, without regard to any depreciation or appreciation in consequence of the said consolidation, and the said company may, at its election, either pay to the said stockholder the amount of damages so found and awarded, if any, or the value of the stock so ascertained and determined, and upon the payment of the value of the stock as aforesaid, the said stockholder shall transfer the stock so held by him to said company, to be disposed of by the directors of said company, or to be retained for the benefit of the remaining stockholders, and in case the value of said stock as aforesaid is not so paid within thirty days from the filing of the said award and confirmation by said court and notice to said company the damages so found and confirmed shall be a judgment against said company, and collected as other judgments in said court are, by law, recoverable.

24. And be it enacted, That the corporation created or consolidated under this act may increase its capital stock to such amount as may be determined by its board of directors; provided, that such corporation shall, previous to the issuing of any such stock, file in the office of the secretary of state of this state a certificate, signed by its president and under its corporate seal, attested by its secretary, setting forth the amount of the proposed increase of capital stock and the number of shares into which the same is to be divided, and also the assent in writing of stockholders owning at least two-thirds in value of the existing capital stock to said proposed increase of capital stock.

How capital stock may be increased.

Proviso.

25. And be it enacted, That in all cases of consolidation of two or more railway companies under and by virtue of the provisions of this act, the said consolidated company shall have power and authority to issue bonds, registered or with coupons or interest certificates thereto attached, or both, to an amount sufficient to cover all indebtedness of the company so consolidated, and to aid in the completion and equipment of said railway, to secure the payment of which it shall be lawful for them to create a mortgage covering their corporate franchises, rights, privileges, property, assets, real and personal; provided, that the bonds shall not bear a greater rate of interest than six per centum per annum; the bonds so issued may be given in lieu, exchange and satisfaction of and for all bonds or other debts against the companies thus consolidated, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by and between the holders of said debts or claims.

Authorized to issue bonds, and create a mortgage.

Proviso.

26. And be it enacted, That in all cases of such consolidation under and by virtue of the provisions of this act the said companies shall have the right to borrow from time to time such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the accomplishment of the objects of such corporation not exceeding at any one time the total amount of the authorized capital stock of such corporation, and for the repayment thereof may issue bonds registered or with coupons or interest certificates thereto attached, or both, secured by a mortgage or mortgages covering all the corporate franchises, rights, privileges, immunities, assets, real and personal, of such mortgagor corporation.

Authorized to borrow money, and issue bonds and mortgages.

Mortgages to be recorded.

27. And be it enacted, That any corporation created under this act may borrow from time to time such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the accomplishment of the objects of such corporation not exceeding at any one time the total amount of the authorized capital stock of such corporation, or any increase thereof, and to secure the repayment thereof, or of any part or portion thereof, may issue bonds registered or with coupons or interest certificates thereto attached, or both, secured by a mortgage of any or all of its franchises, real estate or personal property, including stocks and securities of such corporation or of any other corporation whose stocks or securities it owns, which mortgage may be recorded as mortgages of real estate are or hereafter may be by law required to be recorded in the office of the clerk or register of deeds of the county or counties in which the railway or railways described in said mortgage may be located, and in the office of the clerk or register of deeds of the county in which the principal office of such corporation is situate, and such record or the lodgment of such mortgage in such clerk's or registers's office for record shall have the same force, operation and effect as to all judgment creditors, purchasers or mortgagees in good faith, as the record of lodgment for that purpose of mortgages of real estate now have, although such mortgage may not have been executed, proved or recorded as a chattel mortgage.

Cannot plead any statute against usury.

28. And be it enacted, That no corporation or corporations issuing bonds under the provisions of this act shall plead any statute or statutes against usury in any court of law or equity in any suit instituted to enforce the payment of such bonds or mortgages.

Stock issued upon purchase of real estate, &c.

29. And be it enacted, That the directors of any company incorporated under this act may purchase and hold real and personal property necessary and convenient for the business of such company, and also the stocks and securities of other corporations, and issue stock to the amount of the value thereof, in payment therefor, and the stock so issued shall be declared and be taken to be full paid stock, and shall not be liable to any further call, neither shall the holder thereof be liable for any further payments or assessments upon such stock; and such stocks shall have legibly stamped upon the face thereof, "issued for property purchased," and in all statements and reports of the company to be published, such stock shall not be reported or stated as being issued for cash paid into the company, but shall be reported according to the fact.

How stocks stamped.

30. And be it enacted, That whenever any company incorporated under this act, shall have a duty imposed upon it, or a privilege which it is authorized to exercise, and there is a limited time within which such duty is to be discharged or such privilege exercised, and such company may be restrained by the decree, order or writ of any court from the discharge of such duty, or prevented by the omission of any board of alderman, common council or body having control of streets, or highways or other governing body of any city, town, borough, village, township or county to give any consent required by this act; for the exercise of any privilege conferred by this act, then so much of the time aforesaid during which such restraint exists, or such omission continued, shall not be computed, as any portion of the time limited for the discharge of such duty or the exercise of such privilege.

When limit of time to perform certain duties shall not be computed.

31. And be it enacted, That any corporation created under this act, whether by consolidation or otherwise, may change the gauge or width of track of any railway consolidated therewith or leased thereto.

May change gauge or width of track.

32. And be it enacted, That any consent required by this act to be given by any public body may be given by a resolution or ordinance of such body, which consent, when accepted by any corporation created under this act in a writing under its corporate seal, filed with the clerk of such body, or in the office of the clerk of the county in which such body exists shall have the force and effect of a contract.

Any consent required given by resolution or ordinance.

33. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act, to the extent of such inconsistency, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 16, 1893.

CHAPTER CXCII.

An Act to authorize and regulate the construction of street railways upon turnpikes.

Authorized to construct street railways in counties of second class.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That any duly incorporated street railway company of this state may construct and operate a street railway upon and along the roadbed of any turnpike company located within counties of the second class in this state, which shall have granted or conveyed such right or privilege to such street railway company.

Board of commissioners, &c., by resolution or ordinance locate track.

2. And be it enacted, That the board of commissioners, common council, township committee or other governing body or bodies of any city, incorporated town, borough or township within or through the limits whereof such turnpike shall lie or extend shall, upon the petition of such street railway company and proof of the granting of such permission or right of way by the turnpike company, by resolution or ordinance locate the track or tracks of such street railway company upon the roadbed of such turnpike company; provided, such governing body may require the surrender by said turnpike company of its toll and other turnpike franchises as a condition upon which such location shall be made.

Proviso.

3. And be it enacted, That in case said turnpike lies within the boundaries of any incorporated city, town, borough or borough commission in whole or in part, it shall be necessary for such company to be first authorized by ordinance or resolution of the governing body of such city, town, borough or borough commission before the construction of such street railroad within the corporate limits of such city, town, borough or borough commission.

When necessary to be authorized by ordinance or resolution of governing body.

4. And be it enacted, That after such location shall have been made as herein provided, such street railway company shall in other respects conform to the law concerning horse and street railways.

Must conform to the law.

5. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

creek, and in the creeks where there is a natural growth of oysters, and the beds that fall bare, for any purpose whatever, and any person offending against the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall for every such offense be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars and by imprisonment at hard labor for a period not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 16, 1893.

CHAPTER CXCIV.

An Act relating to sales of lands for taxes or assessments.

By whom, when tax deed is annulled or set aside, money shall be refunded.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever any tax deed heretofore or hereafter given by any city, town or township or by the public body or public officer authorized by law to make conveyance of lands sold for taxes shall be annulled or set aside on account of any defect in the levying of the tax for which said property is sold, or in the proceedings for the collection of said tax or the sale of said lands, or for any defect in the giving of notice to redeem, where such defect results from the fault or omission of said city, town or township or of any of its officers or representatives, it shall be the duty of such city, town or township to refund to the person or persons who shall have purchased said land at said tax sale, or who shall have purchased the right of said city, town or township to said lands under such tax sale, his or their heirs or assigns, any and all sums of money received by said city, town or township as consideration of said tax deed, and for other taxes upon said lands in arrears when said purchase was made or deed taken, together with interest thereon from the date of such payment by the grantee in said deed named.

2. And be it enacted, That whenever any tax deed or sale of lands for taxes or assessments shall be set aside for any omission, fault or defect in the proceedings for such sale or in the giving of notice to redeem or otherwise, and the said city, town or township shall have refunded to the purchaser of said tax title the amount so paid the said tax or assessment shall not thereby become discharged as against the lands originally lawfully chargeable therewith, but the said tax or assessment and all other taxes thereon paid contemporaneously therewith shall thereupon be re-established as a lien or incumbrance upon said lands to the same extent and with the same force and effect as said lien existed before proceedings for sale of lands for such taxes or assessments were taken; and such city, town or township may re-advertise said lands for sale and sell the same in the same manner and execute certificate of sale and deed for the same in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such defective sale or proceedings had not been taken.

When money has been refunded all taxes are re-established as a lien upon said lands.

Lands re-advertised for sale.

3. And be it enacted, That this act take effect immediately.

Approved March 16, 1893.

CHAPTER CXCV.

Approved March 16, 1893.

CHAPTER CC.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning the settlement and collection of arrearages of unpaid taxes, assessments and water-rates or water-rents in cities of this state, and imposing and levying a tax, assessment and lien in lieu and instead of such arrearages, and to enforce the payment thereof, and to provide for the sale of lands subjected to further taxation and assessment," passed March thirtieth, one thousand and eighty-six.

How lands may be redeemed, notwithstanding delivery of deed.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in case any person interested in the lands sold under the act of which this is a supplement or any of the supplements thereto, who is entitled to a notice of the sale under said act and supplements, has not been notified by the purchaser thereof or his legal representatives or assigns of such sale by inadvertence or otherwise, and a deed of said lands has been made and delivered to such purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns, such person or persons having such interest may, notwithstanding the making and delivery of said deed, be notified in the same manner and be entitled to redeem said lands within the same time and manner as provided in said act and supplements, and after the expiration of the time for redemption the officer whose duty it is under said act and supplements to make and execute the deed for the land sold shall make and execute a supplemental deed of such land to the said purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns, which deed shall recite the omission to notify said person in interest and the giving of such notice after the making and delivery of the original deed and said supplemental deed shall convey said lands as fully and to the same extent as if the said person interested in said lands had been originally notified and his interest had been sold, conveyed, debarred and foreclosed by the original deed.

Supplemental deed to be made after expiration of time for redemption.

2. And be it enacted, That where the purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns have omitted to file the affidavits and proofs of mailing and publication required by the act to which this is a supplement and any of the supplements thereto within the time now required by law, such affidavits and proofs may be filed any time within two months after the passage of this act.

Limit for filing affidavits omitted.

3. And be it enacted, That all acts so far as they conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Repealer.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be deemed a public act and shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 16, 1898.

CHAPTER CCII.

An Act providing for the sale of lands for unpaid taxes and assessments heretofore levied or imposed, or which may be hereafter levied or imposed, in towns of this state.

Warrant may be issued after expiration of one year for collection of unpaid taxes for public improvements.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That where in any town of this state taxes or assessments for public improvements heretofore levied or imposed upon any lands or real estate therein which now remain due and in arrears shall remain due and unpaid for the period of one year after the passage of this act it shall be lawful for the town council or other governing body of such town at any time after the expiration of said period to issue its warrant under the corporate seal of the town, signed by the chairman thereof and attested by the town clerk, directed to the treasurer of the town, therein and thereby commanding him to sell such lands and real estate at public auction to the highest bidder, in the manner prescribed by this act, which warrant shall include all lots and parcels of land and real estate subject to liens for taxes or assessments, or both, at the time of the passage of this act which shall not then have been fully paid or discharged; provided, however, that no lot or parcel of land shall be sold for less than the amount due thereon, and interest, penalties and costs of sale.

Sale to be public.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That all lands and real estate which have been heretofore sold for a term of years, for, or on account of, the non-payment of any tax or assessment to any board or officer of such town for the use or benefit thereof, and which shall not have been redeemed therefrom at the time of issuing said warrant, shall be deemed and taken to be lands and real estate upon which taxes or assessments, as the case may be, are unpaid and in arrears, within the meaning of the first section of this act.

Lands sold to town and not redeemed, how held.

3. And be it enacted, That where, in any town of this state, taxes or assessments hereafter levied or imposed upon any lands or real estate therein, shall remain unpaid and in arrears for the period of three years after the time limited or appointed by law for the payment thereof, it shall be lawful for the town council or other governing body of such town, at any time after the expiration of said period, to issue its warrant under the corporate seal of the town, signed by the chairman thereof and attested by the town clerk, directed to the treasurer of the town, commanding him to sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, in the manner provided by this act, each and every lot and parcel of land and real estate upon which such taxes or assessments shall remain unpaid and in such warrant mentioned and described; which said warrant shall include all lots and parcels of lands in arrears for the same taxes or assessments; provided, however, that no lot or parcel of land shall be sold for less than the amount of the tax or assessment due thereon, and interest, penalties and costs of sale.

Warrant may be issued after the expiration of three years for collection of unpaid taxes.

Sale to be public.

Proviso.

4. And be it enacted, That the warrants provided to be issued by the first and third section of this act shall contain a brief description of each lot or parcel of land directed to be sold, adding thereto the lot and block recovered under this act shall be for the use of the poor of the city, borough, town, township wherein such violation shall have been committed, and the other half shall be for the use of the owner in whose name the complaint is made; and the officer collecting the same shall immediately upon receipt thereof pay over the same, as aforesaid, to the officer of such city, borough, town or township, who is by law charged with the care of the poor, and to the said owner.

Violators guilty of misdemeanor.

4. And be it enacted, That any person who shall violate any of the provisions of section one of this act shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding six months or both, at the discretion of the court.

Penalty.

When search warrant shall issue.

5. And be it enacted, That on probable cause shown on oath or affirmation of the owner of any such butts, hogsheads, barrels, casks or other packages upon which said owner's name is branded or stamped, or of his agent thereunto specially authorized, that any person has in his possession any such packages in violation of the provisions of section one of this act, or with intent to violate the same, a search warrant shall issue to discover and obtain the said packages; and said search warrant shall be issued and served or executed by any of the several officers now authorized under the laws of this state to issue, serve or execute search warrants, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as is now required by law in cases where search warrants are issued.

By whom search warrant served.

6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 16, 1893.

CHAPTER CCX.

An Act to revise and amend "An act to tax intestates' estates, gifts, legacies and collateral inheritance in certain cases," approved March twenty-third, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That after the passage of this act all property which shall pass by will or by the intestate laws of this state from any person who may die seized or possessed of the same while being a resident of the state, and all property which shall be within this state, and any part of such property, and any interest therein or income therefrom, which shall be transferred by inheritance, distribution, bequest, devise, deed, grant, sale or gift aforesaid, made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the intestate, testator, grantor or bargainor, to any person or persons, or to a body politic or corporate, excepting churches, hospitals and orphan asylums, in trust or otherwise, or by reason whereof any person or body politic or corporate shall become beneficially entitled, in possession or expectancy, to such property, or to the income thereof, other than to or for the use of a father, mother, husband, wife, children, brother or sister, or lineal descendants born in lawful wedlock, or the wife or widow of a son, or the husband of a daughter, shall be subject to a tax of five dollars on every hundred dollars of the clear market value of such property, to be paid to the treasurer of the state of New Jersey for the use of the state, and all administrators, executors and trustees shall be liable for any and all such taxes until the same shall have been paid as hereinafter directed; provided, that an estate which may be valued at a less sum than five hundred dollars shall not be subject to said duty or tax.

Gifts, legacies and collateral inheritance subject to a tax of $5 on every $100, except churches, hospitals and orphan asylums.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That when any person shall bequeath or devise, convey, grant, sell or give as afore-

Property to be appraised and tax due immediately.

said any property, or interest therein, or income therefrom, to a father, mother, husband, wife, children, brother or sister, the widow of a son, or a lineal descendant, during life or for a term of years, and the remainder to a collateral heir of the decedent, or to a stranger in blood, or to a body politic or corporate, the property so passing shall be appraised immediately after the death of said testator or grantor, as the case may be, at what shall then be the fair market value thereof, in the manner hereinafter provided, and after deducting therefrom the value of said life estate, or term of years, the tax prescribed by this act on the remainder shall be immediately due and payable to the treasurer of the state of New Jersey, and, together with the interest thereon, shall be and remain a lien on said property until the same is paid; provided, that the person or persons, or body politic or corporate beneficially interested in the property chargeable with said tax, may elect not to pay the same until they shall come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, or, and in that case, such person or persons, or body politic or corporate, shall give a bond to the state of New Jersey in a penalty three times the amount of the tax arising upon personal estate, with such sureties as the chancellor may approve, conditioned for the payment of said tax and interest thereon, at such time or period as they or their representatives may come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, which bond shall be filed in the office of the clerk in chancery; provided further, that such person shall make a full verified return of such property to the chancellor of the state and file the same in the office of the clerk in chancery within one year from the death of the decedent, and within that period enter into such security and renew the same every five years.

Proviso.

Proviso.

Bequests to executors or trustees exceeding reasonable compensation, excess to be taxed.

§. And be it enacted, That whenever a decedent appoints or names one or more executors or trustees, and makes a bequest or devise of property to them in lieu of their commissions or allowances, which otherwise would be liable to said tax, or appoints them his residuary legatees, and said bequest, devises or residuary legacies exceed what would be a reasonable compensation for their services, such excess shall be liable to said tax, and the chancellor or the orphans' court having jurisdiction in the case shall fix such compensation.

4. And be it enacted, That all taxes imposed by this act, unless otherwise herein provided for, shall be due and payable at the death of the testator, grantor or intestate, as the case may be, and if the same are paid within one year, interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be charged and collected thereon, but if not so paid, interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum shall be charged and collected from the time said tax accrued; provided, that if said tax is paid within six months from the accruing thereof, interest shall not be charged or collected thereon, but a discount of five per centum shall be allowed and deducted from said tax; and in all cases where the executors, administrators or trustees do not pay such tax within one year from the death of the decedent they shall be required to give a bond, in the form and to the effect prescribed in section two of this act, for the payment of said tax, together with interest.

Interest on tax

Proviso.

5. And be it enacted, That the penalty of ten per centum per annum imposed by section four hereof for the non-payment of said tax shall not be charged, where in cases by reason of claims made upon the estate, necessary litigation or other unavoidable cause of delay, the estate of any decedent, or a part thereof, cannot be settled at the end of a year from the death of the decedent, and in such cases only six per centum per annum shall be charged upon the said tax from the expiration of such year until the cause of such delay is removed.

Part of penalty remitted where necessary litigation occurs.

6. And be it enacted, That any administrator, executor or trustee having in charge or trust any legacy or property for distribution, subject to said tax, shall deduct the tax therefrom, or if the legacy or property be not money, he shall collect the tax thereon upon the appraised value thereof from the legatee or person entitled to such property, and he shall not deliver or be compelled to deliver any specific legacy or property subject to tax to any person until he shall have collected the tax thereon; and whenever any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate, the heir or devisee, before paying the same, shall deduct said tax therefrom and pay the same to the executor, administrator or trustee, and the same shall remain a charge on such real estate until paid, and the payment thereof shall be enforced by the executor, administrator or trustee in the same manner that the payment of such legacy might be enforced; if, however, such legacy be given in money to any person for a limited period, he shall retain the tax upon the whole amount, but if it be not in money, he shall make application to the court having jurisdiction of his accounts to make an apportionment, if the case require it, of the sum to be paid into his hands by such legatees, and for such further order relative thereto as the case may require.

Executors, &c.,
authorized to sell property.

7. And be it enacted, That all executors, administrators and trustees shall have full power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as will enable them to pay said tax, in the same manner as they may be enabled by law to do for the payment of debts of their testators and intestates, and the amount of said tax shall be paid as hereinafter directed.

Executors, &c.,
to pay tax to state treasurer,
take his receipt,
countersigned by the comptroller.

8. And be it enacted, That any sum of money retained by any executor, administrator or trustee, or paid into his hands for any tax or any property, shall be paid by him, within thirty days thereafter, to the treasurer of the state of New Jersey; and the said treasurer shall deliver a receipt of such payment to the comptroller of the state, whose duty it shall be to countersign the same and return it to the executor, administrator or trustee, whereupon it shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of his accounts, but an executor, administrator or trustee, shall not be entitled to credit in his accounts, nor to be discharged from liability for such tax unless he shall produce a receipt so countersigned by the comptroller, or a copy thereof certified by him.

Executors, &c.,
to give information in writing to the comptroller.

9. And be it enacted, That whenever any of the real estate of which any decedent may die seized, shall pass to any body, politic or corporate, or to any person other than the father, mother, husband, wife, lawful issue, brother or sister, wife or widow of a son, or husband of a daughter, or in trust for them, or some of them, it shall be the duty of the executors, administrators or trustees of such decedent to give information thereof in writing to the comptroller of the state within six months after they undertake the execution of their respective duties, or if the fact be not known to them within that period, then within one month after the same shall have come to their knowledge.

10. And be it enacted, That whenever any debts shall be proven against the estate of a decedent, after the payment of legacies or distribution of property from which the said tax has been deducted, or upon which it has been paid, and a refund is made by the legatee, devisee, heir or next of kin, a proportion of the tax so paid shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator or trustee, if the said tax has not been paid to the state treasurer, or by them if it has been so paid.

When proportion of tax may be refunded.

11. And be it enacted, That whenever any foreign executor or administrator shall assign or transfer any stocks or loans in this state, standing in the name of a decedent, or in trust for a decedent, which shall be liable to the said tax, such tax shall be paid to the state treasurer on the transfer thereof, otherwise the corporation permitting such transfer shall become liable to pay such tax; provided, that such corporation has knowledge before such transfer that said stocks or loans are liable to said tax.

When foreign executors, &c., assign and transfer stocks, &c.

12. And be it enacted, That when any amount of said tax shall have been paid erroneously to the state treasurer, it shall be lawful for the comptroller of the treasury, on satisfactory proof rendered to him of such erroneous payments, to draw his warrant on the state treasurer, in favor of the executor, administrator, person or persons who have paid any such tax in error, or who may be lawfully entitled to receive the same, for the amount of such tax so paid in error; provided, that all such applications for the re-payment of such tax, shall be made within two years from the date of such payment.

Proviso.

How tax paid erroneously refunded.

Compensation of appraisers.

Penalty for taking fee or reward.

14. And be it enacted, That any appraiser appointed by virtue of this act who shall take any fee or reward from any executor, administrator, trustee, legatee, next of kin or heir of any decedent, or from any other person liable to pay said tax or any portion thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any court having jurisdiction of misdemeanors he shall be fined not less than two hundred and fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and imprisoned not exceeding ninety days, and in addition thereto the register of the prerogative court or surrogate shall dismiss him from such service.

Jurisdiction of ordinary or the orphans' court.

15. And be it enacted, That the ordinary or the orphans' court in the county in which the real property is situate of a decedent who was not a resident of the state, or in the county of which the decedent was a resident at the time of his death, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions in relation to the tax arising under the provisions of this act.

16. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear to the register of the prerogative court or surrogate that any tax accruing under this act has not been paid according to law, such officer shall issue a citation citing the persons interested in the property liable to the tax to appear before the ordinary or orphans' court on a day certain, not more than three months after the date of such citation, and show cause why said tax should not be paid; the service of such citation and the time, manner and proof thereof, and fees therefor, and the hearing and determination thereon, and the enforcement of the determination or decree shall conform to the provisions of the law for the service of citations now issued by the ordinary or orphans' court, and the hearing and determination thereon and its enforcement; and the register of the prerogative court or surrogate shall, upon the request of any prosecutor of the pleas or the state comptroller, furnish one or more transcripts of such decree, and the same may be by them docketed and filed by the county clerk of any county in the state, and the same shall have the same effect as a lien by judgment.

Proceedings when tax is not paid.

17. And be it enacted, That whenever the state comptroller shall have reason to believe that any tax is due and unpaid under this act, after the refusal or neglect of the persons interested in the property liable to said tax to pay the same, he shall notify the prosecutor of the pleas of the proper county in writing, of such failure to pay such tax, and the prosecutor of the pleas so notified, if he have probable cause to believe a tax is due and unpaid, shall prosecute the proceeding before the ordinary of the orphans' court in the proper county, as provided in section sixteen of this act, for the enforcement and collection of such tax; all costs awarded by such decree to such prosecutor, that may be collected after the collection and payment of the tax to the state treasurer, may be retained by the prosecutor of the pleas for his own use.

county clerk of each county shall every three months make a statement in writing, to the state comptroller, of the property from which or the party from whom he has reason to believe a tax under this act has become due since his last report.

19. And be it enacted, That whenever the surrogate of any county, or the register of the prerogative court, shall certify to the state comptroller, that there was probable cause for issuing a citation and taking the proceedings specified in section sixteen of this act, the state treasurer shall pay upon the warrant of the comptroller, to the proper officials all expenses incurred for the issuing and services of the citation and all other lawful disbursements that have not otherwise been paid.

20. And be it enacted, That the comptroller of the state shall furnish to the register of the prerogative court and to each surrogate a book in which he shall enter, or cause to be entered, the returns made by appraisers, the cash value of annuities, life estates and term of years and other property fixed by him, and the tax assessed thereon, and the amounts of any receipts for payments thereon filed with him, which books shall be kept in the office of the register of the prerogative court of the surrogate as a public record, and shall furnish all other forms and blanks necessary for use in the proper enforcement of this law.

21. And be it enacted, That in addition to the fees above mentioned the fees of the surrogates for each county for the duties heretofore or hereafter to be performed by them in each estate under this act and the act entitled "An act to tax intestates' estates, gifts, legacies and collateral inheritance in certain cases," approved March twenty-third, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, shall be paid by the state treasurer upon the warrant of the comptroller, and shall not exceed the following rates: on all sums paid to the state treasurer, not exceeding three thousand dollars, five per centum; if over three thousand dollars three per centum on such excess.

22. And be it enacted, That any person, or body politic or corporate, shall be entitled to a receipt from the state treasurer, countersigned by the state comptroller, for the payment of any tax paid under this act, which receipt shall designate on what real property, if any, of which any decedent may have died seized, said tax has been paid, and by whom paid, and whether or not it is in full of said tax, and said receipt may be recorded in the clerk's office of the county in which said property is situate, in a book to be kept by said clerk for such purpose, which shall be labeled "collateral tax." Collateral tax book.

23. And be it enacted, That the "Act to tax intestates' estates, gifts, legacies and collateral inheritance in certain cases," approved March twenty-third, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and all other acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed, except so far as herein re-enacted; but nothing in this repealer shall affect or impair the lien of any taxes heretofore assessed, or due and payable, or any remedies for the collection of the same, or to surrender any remedies, powers, rights or privileges acquired by the state under said act hereby revised, or to relieve any person or corporation from any penalty imposed by said act. Repealer, &c.

24. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 16, 1893.

CHAPTER CCXI.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning the settlement and collection of arrearages of unpaid taxes, assessments and water rates or water rents in cities of this state, and imposing and levying a tax, assessment and lien in lieu and instead of such arrearages, and to enforce the payment thereof, and to provide for the sale of lands subjected to further taxation and assessment," passed March thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Section to be amended.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section one of the supplement to said act, which supplement was approved April fifth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, shall be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

By whom costs and expenses to be paid on redeeming lands sold.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever any person shall desire to redeem any lands and real estate sold under and by virtue of the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, and the acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof, every such person shall, in addition to the sum or sums of money required to be paid as now provided by law, pay to the purchaser of such lands and premises, or to his assignee, in case of assignment, or to the city for the use of said purchaser, or his assignee, all the costs and expenses necessarily incurred in proceedings taken for the purpose of perfecting title thereto, including fees for searching, at the rates allowed by law to the county clerks or registers of deeds for like services, but not including counsel fees ; provided, however, that no purchaser or assignee shall be allowed for such search or notice fees upon the redemption of said property unless he shall have filed with the city clerk of said city before such redemption a statement of such fees, costs and expenses

Approved March 17, 1893.

CHAPTER CCXIV.

A Supplement to the act entitled "A supplement to the act entitled 'An act to establish an excise department in cities of this state,' passed April eighth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four," which supplementary act was approved February twenty-fourth, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Powers of boards of excise commissioners in cities and towns, except cities of the first class.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That every board of excise commissioners within and for any town or city of this state, except in cities of the first class, heretofore appointed and organized, and which hereafter shall be appointed and organized, under and pursuant to the supplementary act to which this is a supplement, shall have the following powers, namely: to appoint a clerk of said excise board at an annual salary of not more than one hundred dollars; to employ counsel learned in law to advise them, and prosecute suits and actions brought by and defend suits and actions brought against them at an annual salary of not more than one hundred dollars; to purchase such books to be kept as records, and such blanks and other stationery as they shall consider necessary at an annual sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars; and to pay the salary of their clerk, the compensation to which their counsel shall be entitled; the purchase price for record books, blanks and stationery, and their own salaries prescribed by the supplementary act to which this is a supplement out of the license fees which may come into their hands.

2. And be it enacted, That the clerk appointed by any board of excise commissioners shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board by and for which he shall be appointed, and shall before he enters upon the execution of his office take and subscribe an oath or affirmation in the following form, to-wit:

Term of office of clerk.

I, ———, clerk of the board of excise commissioners within and for the (town or city) of ———, do solemnly and sincerely promise and swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully and honestly keep all the papers, writings, books and records by virtue of my office committed, and which from time to time shall be committed to me, and that I will, in all things, to the best of my knowledge and understanding, perform the duties of said office of clerk without favor or partiality;

Oath.

Which oath or affirmation may be subscribed and taken before any person authorized by the laws of this state to administer oaths and affirmations, and after the taking thereof shall be filed by said clerk and kept by him with the papers and writings pertaining to his office.

Oath to be filed.

3. And be it enacted, That upon the death or expiration of the office of clerk of any board of excise commissioners all the papers, writings, books and records belonging to the said office shall be delivered to the successor in office, on the oath or affirmation of the preceding clerk, or, in case of his death, on the oath or affirmation of his executors or administrators; and if any such clerk, his executors or administrators, shall refuse or neglect to deliver the same on oath or affirmation as aforesaid, being lawfully demanded, then every such person shall forfeit fifty dollars, to be recovered with costs, by action of debt, in any court having cognizance of that sum in the name of the board by and for which such clerk was appointed, for the same uses to which license fees received by said board are directed to be applied and used.

Power to designate newspaper to publish ordinances, &c.

4. And be it enacted, That every board of excise commissioners heretofore appointed and organized, and which hereafter may be appointed and organized within and for any town or city of this State, under and pursuant to the act to which this is a supplement, shall have the power to designate the newspaper or newspapers in which any ordinance, by-law or resolution passed or adopted by them shall be published, and shall pay the charges of such publication out of any license fees received by them.

When license fees received shall be paid to treasurer.

5. And be it enacted, That all license fees received by any board of excise commissioners which shall not be required by them to pay salaries or other matter or thing which by this act they are authorized and empowered to pay, shall, within ten days after the receipt thereof, be paid by said board to the treasurer of the town or city within and for which they are appointed for the use of such town or city.

How board shall publish annually statement of license fees received and payments thereof.

6. And be it enacted, That annually after the passage of this act, every board of excise commissioners within and for any town or city of this state shall publish in two newspapers published in such town or city, if so many be published therein, and if so many be not published therein, then in one newspaper published in such town or city and one newspaper published in the county in which such town or city is, and circulated in such town or city, and if no newspaper be published in such town or city, then in two newspapers published in the county in which said town or city is and circulated therein, a detailed statement and account of the license fees received, and of the payments thereof, the expenses of which publication shall be paid by the board of excise commissioners out of the license fees in or which shall come into their hands.

7. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general and special, local and public, inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately. Repealer.

Approved March 17, 1893.

CHAPTER CCXV.

An Act to establish the rate of interest on arrears of taxes in cities of this state.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be lawful for the common council or other board having charge and control of the finances of any city in this state to fix and change, by resolution, the rate of interest on all past-due taxes which were due and unpaid prior to January first, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two; provided, however, that such rate when adopted shall apply only to such taxes as are still due and unpaid to such city. Lawful to fix rate of interest on past due taxes by resolution.

2. And be it enacted, That if any taxes shall have been paid within four months prior to the passage of this act the said common council or other proper board shall have power to refund any excess of interest and costs that may have been paid, over and above the rate of interest, that may be fixed under the authority of the first section of this act. Proviso.

3. And be it enacted, That all laws, general or special, inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately. Power to refund excess of interest and costs.

Approved March 17, 1893. Repealer.

Authorized to issue additional bonds.

Proviso.

3. And be it enacted, That said board of chosen freeholders is hereby authorized, in order to secure sufficient moneys to meet the requirements and purposes of this act, to provide for and make a new or additional issue or issues of bonds, over and above those provided for and authorized to be issued by the said act to which this is a supplement, and the supplements thereto and amendments thereof, to an amount or sum requisite and necessary to meet such requirements; provided, however, that the bonds or additional issue of bonds, authorized to be issued under and by virtue of this supplementary act, shall not exceed the sum of one million dollars; and the bonds to be issued hereunder shall be of like tenor and effect to those authorized to be issued under the original act to which this is a supplement; no part of the moneys to be realized from the sale of such bonds shall be used for any purpose than as authorized and mentioned in said acts, or either of them.

Repealer.

4. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts, general, special, local or otherwise, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 27, 1893.

CHAPTER CCLXII.

An Act to amend an act entitled "A supplement to an act entitled 'An act to authorize the board of chosen freeholders of any of the several counties of this state to lay out, open, construct, improve and maintain a public road therein,' approved April seventh, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight," which supplement was approved April fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That section one of the aforesaid supplementary act be and the same is hereby amended to be and read as follows: Section to be amended.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the board of chosen freeholders of any county in this state, wherein the result of an election held or to be held upon the question whether a public road shall be laid out, opened, constructed, improved and maintained as provided for in the act to which this is a supplement, shall have been or shall be in favor of such public road, is hereby authorized and empowered, without any other or further election, to lay out, open, construct, improve and maintain, in accordance with the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, one or more roads or branches which shall run to and from, and connect or intersect at any convenient point, line or place thereof, any city, town or township of said county, not already connected with the road, or intersected by the lines, or any of them, as already laid out and fixed, of the road provided for in the act to which this is a supplement; provided, however, Authorized to construct roads or branches to connect or intersect at convenient point any city, town or township. that no such city, town or township shall be connected by any such road or branch, as provided for in and by this supplementary act, where the same, or the nearest point, points or boundary lines thereof shall be more than Proviso.

Proviso.

one-half mile distant or away from the main road or original road provided for in the said act to which this is a supplement, measured on the shortest and most direct line between the side line of said road and any such boundary line of any city, town or township as aforesaid; and provided, that all said connecting or other road, roads or branches provided for in this supplement shall not, in the aggregate length, distance or like extent exceed one-third the length of the aforesaid main or original road provided for in the said act to which this is a supplement; such connecting or branch road or roads may be laid out, opened, constructed and improved either upon a direct line from said main or original road and the line of any street, road or avenue already laid out or in existence, or partly upon both, or otherwise, or by means of a road connection or branch road, which shall leave or branch off from said main public road at any point or place to be determined by said board of chosen freeholders by resolution thereof, and after running to or through any such city, town or township, or any part, portion or territory thereof, shall be extended along such line as said board of chosen freeholders may and hereby are authorized to determine by resolution as aforesaid;

Proviso.

provided further, that not less than two-thirds of the total or aggregate length, between commencement and ending points of any and all such connecting road or roads, and for the full width thereof, shall be, if laid out, opened and built or made at all, through and over lands acquired or to be acquired by the said board of chosen freeholders for the purposes of such road, by gift, grant, or for a mere nominal consideration, and through and over streets, roads or avenues already laid out and dedicated to public use; it being hereby expressly provided and understood that not more than one-third of the total length of said connecting roads shall be through and over lands the title to which, for the purposes of said connecting road or roads, shall be requisite to be acquired, or shall be acquired by proceedings in condemnation, or by the payment of any but a mere nominal sum or consideration therefor, as aforesaid; and it is further provided, that such connecting road or roads shall be laid out, opened, constructed, improved and maintained in all other respects

Proviso.

(including the supervision thereof, which is to be by the engineer-in-chief heretofore appointed under said original act), and the money necessary therefor, as mentioned in this act, shall be raised and had in the manner and by the methods provided for the raising of moneys and the like, contained in said act to which this is a supplement; and provided further, that the entire cost of laying out, opening, constructing and improving all of such connecting road in any county of this state shall not exceed (including awards for lands, real estate and property taken and damage thereto) the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and that the issue of bonds to raise money to pay the costs, charges and expenses in laying out, opening, constructing and improving such connecting roads shall not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and in order to provide for the proper acquirement by said board of chosen freeholders of the land, real estate and other property necessary to be acquired by condemnation, or the like, to meet and carry out the purposes of this act, three commissioners, and not more than three, of the character and with the powers provided for in and by the sixth section of said original act, to which this is a supplement, shall be appointed therefor in the manner provided for the selection and appointment of such like commissioners in the said original act and the acts supplementary thereto; any vacancy occurring in this commission of three, by the declination of any commissioner named to serve, or by death, resignation or otherwise, to be filled in the manner provided for filling vacancies in the office of commissioners in and by said supplemental acts. Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 27, 1893.

CHAPTER CCLXIII.

A Further Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the formation of borough governments," approved April fifth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

Lawful for mayor and council, by ordinance, to order and cause to be constructed
sewers or drains,
&c.

Proceedings for acquiring land.

Proviso.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That it shall be lawful, by ordinance, without other formality except as hereinafter required, for the mayor and council of any borough that now is or may hereafter be incorporated under the act to which this is a supplement, to order and cause to be constructed sewers or drains in any part of said borough; and to provide and maintain a general system of sewerage or drainage, with all the appurtenances thereof, for such borough, or any part thereof, conformably to which all sewers and drains shall be constructed; and to establish and maintain one or more main or outlet drains or sewers and outlets or places of deposit, within or without such borough, for sewerage or drainage; and to provide for the disposal of sewerage and drainage from such borough; and to repair and cleanse and maintain such sewers and drains; and when it shall be necessary to locate any of such sewers or drains, or any part of such system, upon any land other than public highways or streets, any such land, or any easement, right or real estate therein may be lawfully acquired by such borough; and the proceedings therefor and for the award and payment of damage therefor, shall conform to the proceedings now provided or that may hereafter be provided by law for acquiring land for opening streets in such borough; provided, that it shall be lawful to take any such lands without first making compensation therefor; and in case it shall be necessary to cross any lands of the state in the construction of said sewer for the purpose of obtaining an outlet, it shall be lawful to take and use such lands for the purpose.

2. And be it enacted, That whenever a petition in writing of any owners of property interested shall be presented to the mayor and council of the borough, asking for the construction of a main outlet or lateral sewer or drain in any particular section of said borough, it shall be lawful for said mayor and council by resolution to declare its intention to cause such main outlet or lateral sewer or drain to be constructed; and the said mayor and council shall forthwith cause said resolution to be published by the borough clerk in two or more newspapers printed or circulated in said borough for the space of two weeks, together with a notice requesting such persons as may object thereto to present their objections in writing, at or before the expiration of two weeks from the date of such notice, to the officer signing the same; and if persons owning and representing more than one-half of the lineal frontage of land along all the streets through which it is proposed to construct any such sewer or drain shall so present their objections in writing, then such proceedings shall cease, unless the local or state board of health shall certify that such main outlet or lateral sewer or drain is necessary for sanitary purposes; but otherwise, and after the expiration of said two weeks, said board, the mayor and council may, by ordinance, order the construction of such main outlet or lateral sewer or drain, and by resolution award contracts for the same or any part or section thereof, and may take all other necessary steps for properly carrying into effect the proposed work by resolution.

Proceedings when owners of property petition mayor and council to construct outlet or lateral sewer.

3. And be it enacted, That upon the completion of any such main outlet or lateral drain or sewer, the mayor and council shall apply to the circuit court of the county wherein such borough is situated to appoint commissioners to estimate and assess the special benefits derived therefrom by any lands or real estate in the vicinity thereof; of the time and place of such application notice shall be given by two weeks' publication in two newspapers printed and circulated in said borough, at which time and place or at such other time and place as the court shall designate, said court shall without unnecessary delay appoint three commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of such borough, to estimate and Commissioners appointed to estimate and assess special benefits.

Notice to be given.

assess said benefits; and the said court shall have power to remove any commissioner and appoint another in his place and also to fill any vacancy that may occur from any cause.

Take and subscribe an oath.

4. And be it enacted, That the commissioners so appointed, before entering upon the execution of the duties required of them by this act, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation that they will make said estimates and assessments honestly according to law and the best of their ability, which oath or affirmation shall be attached to the report that they are hereinafter required to make.

Give notice of time and place of meeting.

5. And be it enacted, That having thus qualified said commissioners shall give the notice directed by the court of the time and place where the persons interested may present themselves and present such objections as they may have to the said assessment; the hearing before the said commissioners shall be a public one, and may be adjourned from time to time as they may deem necessary, or as may be directed by the court; the said commissioners shall have power to examine witnesses under oath, which may be administered by any one of them, and they may also in their discretion view the premises affected by the said assessment; they shall use diligent effort to ascertain the names of the owners of the lands and real estate benefited by the construction of such main outlet or lateral sewer or drain, and shall state the same in their report; but failure to ascertain such names, or to state the same correctly or the omission of any owner's name, shall not invalidate the assessment by them made nor bar the collection thereof; and the said commissioners shall cause to be made a map showing the location of said main outlet or lateral sewer or drain, and the lots of land and real estate especially benefited by the construction of the same, and they shall annex said map to their report.

Have power to examine witnesses.

Assessment not invalidated by failure to ascertain owner's name.

Map to be annexed to their report.

Report their estimate, &c, to court.

6. And be it enacted, That as soon after their appointment as may be, reference being had to all the requirements of this act in the premises, the said commissioners shall conclude their estimate and assessment, and report the same in writing, signed by them or any two of them, to the said court; the said report shall state the cost of the whole work, the portion, if any, assessed upon the borough at large, and shall give the names, as far as ascertained, of the owners of said lots of land and real estate and the amount assessed to each owner for each lot of land and real estate, and shall be accompanied by such other documents as are required by this act; the estimate of benefits and the assessment thereof shall in each case be in proportion to the advantage acquired by the construction of such main outlet or lateral sewer or drain, and in no case shall any owner or property be assessed beyond the amount of benefit actually derived; in determining the cost and expense of said work the said commissioners shall include all expenses lawfully incurred in making the estimate, assessment and report, as well as the cost of the actual construction of said work, and in case the cost and expense as found exceed the amount of benefits assessed, the difference shall be assessed against the borough at large, to be raised and paid as hereinafter provided.

Report shall contain.

What shall be included in costs and expenses.

When difference to be assessed.

7. And be it enacted, That upon the coming in of the report the said court shall cause such notice to be given as shall be proper of the time and place of hearing any objections that may be made to such assessment, and after hearing any matter that may be alleged against the same the said court, either by rule or order, shall confirm said report or shall refer the same to the same commissioners for revision and correction, or to new commissioners to be appointed forthwith to reconsider the subject matter thereof; and the said commissioners to whom such report is so referred shall return the same corrected and revised or a new report, if so ordered, to the said court as soon as may be, and the same being so returned shall be confirmed or again referred by the said court in manner aforesaid as right or justice shall require, and so from time to time until a report shall be made and returned in the premises which the said court shall confirm; such report, when so confirmed, shall be final and conclusive as well upon said borough as upon the owners of any lands and real estate affected thereby, and the said court shall thereupon cause a certified copy of such report and the map accompanying the same, together with a certified copy of the rule or order confirming the same, to be forthwith transmitted to the clerk of such borough, who shall forthwith file the same in his office and deliver a trans-

Notice to be given of time and place to hear objections to report.

Court shall confirm report or refer same to commissioners.

Corrected and revised report to be confirmed by the court.

When confirmed final and conclusive.

- By whom assessments collected. cript of said assessments to the officer of such borough charged with the duty of collecting assessments for improvements.
- When no certiorari allowed unless. 8. And be it enacted, That the court shall direct what notice shall be given of the confirmation of such report, and after such notice has been given as directed in said order no certiorari shall be allowed to review any of the proceedings authorized by this act, nor in any way to affect the assessment made by said commissioners, unless the same shall be applied for within thirty days after the time fixed for notice in the said order.
- Assessments divided in ten installments. 9. And be it enacted, That all assessments made under the provisions of this act shall be divided into ten equal installments, and may be paid at the option of the property owner within ten years, one installment for each year or sooner if he wishes, and the said assessment, and any portion thereof remaining unpaid, shall be and remain a first lien upon the lands and real estate affected thereby from and after the date of said confirmation of the said report to the same extent as taxes are a lien under the general laws of the state, and they shall be collected in the same way that taxes are collected, and in case of non-payment of such assessment within ninety days after the expiration of the ten years within which the foregoing installments are permitted to be paid, then the said lands and real estate assessed therefor may be sold for the same, or for any balance thereof remaining unpaid of the same, in the same manner provided by such laws for the sale of land for unpaid taxes, and the sale of land for any unpaid balance shall be as effectual in all respects as would be the sale of land for the entire assessment; provided, that upon failure to pay any of the said annual installments when the same are due, the whole of said assessment shall become immediately due and payable; and provided, that in no case shall the interest on such assessments exceed the legal rate established by law at the time such report is confirmed.

date of their issue; provided, that if because of the provisions of section nine of this act it becomes necessary, any of such certificates may be renewed, upon falling due, by the issue of other like certificates. Proviso.

11. And be it enacted, That in case any such main outlet or lateral sewers or drains as are in this act described are now in process of construction in any borough of this state, or have heretofore been constructed and completed, and no assessment of the cost and expense thereof has been heretofore made, or has been heretofore by law authorized to be made, upon the property owners specially benefited or to be benefited thereby, and such borough has issued its bonds or other evidence of indebtedness whereby it has raised the money with which the cost and expense of said main outlet or lateral sewers or drains has been in whole or in part paid, the provisions of this act shall apply thereto in all respects as if this act had been passed and become a law before the construction thereof had commenced, and the proceedings had and taken therein shall not be invalidated or set aside by reason of any informality or failure to comply with the requirements of sections one and two of this act, or from any former lack of such lawful authority as is herein conferred on such borough by said sections, but the same shall be deemed and taken as in all respects lawful; provided, that no property shall be assessed but for special benefits derived, and that the amount chargeable to the borough at large shall not be assessed, but shall remain a liability as the same now by law is. When the provisions of this act applicable.

12. And be it enacted, That the mayor and council of any borough proceeding under this act may by resolution order to be incorporated in the annual tax levy in each year such amount as shall be required to be paid by such borough at large, on account of all assessments for such improvements as in this act are authorized, which have been made in the next preceding fiscal year, over and above the total amount of the assessments made against the land and real estate specially benefited, and the same shall be assessed and raised in the general tax. When proceedings not invalidated.

13. And be it enacted, That for the yearly cost and maintenance of such system of drains and sewers as is authorized by this act, and to provide for the payment of Proviso

CHAPTER CCLXVII.

An Act to provide for the efficient sewerage of lowlands in the cities of this state.

Duty of common council, &c., when system of sewers does not efficiently drain lands.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever it shall be represented by the board of health of any city in this state to the common council, board of aldermen, or other governing body of any city in this state, wherein any marsh or lowlands are situated, that, in the opinion of such board, the system of tidal sewers then in operation in such city does not efficiently drain said marsh or lowlands, and that by reason thereof the health of the entire city is impaired or endangered, or likely to be impaired or endangered unless a more efficient and practical method of draining said marsh or lowlands be substituted for the system then in operation in said city, it shall be the duty of said common council, board of aldermen, or other governing body of such city, to inquire into the facts so represented, for the purpose of ascertaining the best means of effectually and systematically draining the said lowlands.

Common council, &c., authorized to make additions to outlet of sewers.

2. And be it enacted, That the said common council, board of aldermen, or other governing body of such city, after having fully considered the subject, shall decide as to the adoption and selection of such necessary outfall, outlet, sewer or sewers, and necessary appurtenances thereto, for such drainage, and thereafter shall have power, by resolution, from time to time, as said common council, board of aldermen or other governing body may deem necessary, to make such connections or additions to such outlet or outfall sewers as they may consider necessary for the complete drainage of said lowlands, and to that end may employ, from time to time, as often as may be necessary to effectuate said plan of sewerage, competent engineers and surveyors to superintend and direct said work, and draw such plans, maps and year thereafter until the full amount of said issue of bonds be paid and satisfied; and that for the purpose of meeting the principal of said bonds at maturity as aforesaid, the board or body having control of the financial appropriations of said city shall annually appropriate, after the expiration of ten years from the date of issue of said bonds, a sum sufficient to meet said bonds when they mature, which sum shall be devoted to a sinking fund for the purpose aforesaid, and the said board of finance or other body in control of the appropriations in said city shall also appropriate annually sufficient moneys in the tax levy of each year to meet the current interest due on said bonds and the incidental cost of maintaining said sewer or sewers; provided, however, that it shall not be lawful for said common council, board of aldermen or other governing body to incur an indebtedness for or on account of the construction of such sewer or sewers or the appurtenances thereof to exceed one hundred thousand dollars in any year, or to issue bonds as aforesaid for or on account of said work for greater amount in any years than one hundred thousand dollars.

7. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts and charter provisions, general and special, inconsistent herewith, be and they are hereby repealed, and that this act shall be considered a public act, to take effect immediately.

Approved March 27, 1898.

CHAPTER CCLXVIII.

A Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning corporations" (Revision), approved April seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That when any corporation heretofore or hereafter created under the act to which this act is a supplement shall have heretofore or hereafter by the terms of its certificate of incorporation classified its directors in respect to the time for which they shall severally hold office pursuant to the provisions of the "Act concerning corporations" (Revision), approved April seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and the supplements and amendments thereof in that behalf applicable, then and in that event any such corporation shall have the power at a meeting of the stockholders of said company, called for that purpose under the provisions of this act by the vote of a majority in amount in interest of the total number of shares of the capital stock of said company then outstanding, however represented, whether by common or preferred stock, or one or more classes, each share of stock in said company of whatever class, if classified, being entitled to one vote under the provisions of this act, to repeal any or all of the provisions whereby said classification of directors in respect to the time for which they shall severally hold office has been or may hereafter be effected, and to repeal any and all provisions, if any, whereby the right to choose the directors of any class may have been heretofore or may hereafter be conferred upon any class or classes of stockholders to the exclusion of the others, and to thereupon determine and limit the term of office of any board of directors of said company then in office, so as to have the said term of office of said entire board then and there expire by limitation at such meeting; on the passage of such resolution, and thereupon and after the passage of such resolution so repealing said provisions as to classification of directors, or voting rights or both as aforesaid, said stockholders shall forthwith proceed to elect a new board of directors to hold office for one year or until the next annual meeting of said stockholders, if the time fixed for the next annual meeting is less than one year from the date of such meeting at which said repeal of said provisions is made, and until their successors are chosen and qualified in their stead, and thereafter the directors of said corporation shall be chosen annually by stockholders at such time and place as shall be provided by the by-laws of the company, and shall hold their offices for one

Time and place of meeting of all stockholders to be published in newspaper.

2. And be it enacted, That the persons holding in their own names on the books of the company a majority in amount in interest of the total capital stock, whether made up of one or several classes as aforesaid, then outstanding of any such corporation, and desiring to avail themselves of the privileges of this act, may call a meeting of all the stockholders of said company for the purpose of considering the question of the repeal of any such provisions as to classification of directors, or voting power of both as aforesaid, and of electing a new board of directors in case of such repeal under the provisions of this act, by signing a notice of such meeting specifying the time and place of holding such meeting and in general terms the object thereof, and publishing the same at least ten days prior to the date fixed therein for said meeting in a newspaper circulating in the county wherein the business of said company is conducted, or where their principal place of business is located.

Where meeting shall be held.

What shall constitute a quorum.

Elect chairman, secretary and inspector.

Adopt by laws providing for future annual meetings.

3. And be it enacted, That any such meeting so called shall be a legal meeting of the stockholders of the company, and shall be held at the office of the corporation, or if it has none, at the place in this state where its principal business has been transacted, or if access to such office or place is denied or cannot be had, at some other place in the city, village or town where such office or place is, or was located; at such meeting, the stockholders attending shall constitute a quorum, and each share of stock of any kind or classes, if classified, shall be entitled to one vote on all questions properly coming before said meeting, any provision to the contrary in the certificate or by-laws of said company notwithstanding; the stockholders attending may elect a chairman, secretary and inspectors of the vote on the consideration of said question of repealing any such provision as to the classification of directors or voting power or both as aforesaid, and of any election of new directors that may be held in case of such repeal, and may elect a new board of directors if such repeal is passed, and may adopt by-laws providing for future annual meetings and election of directors of the company, and may transact any other business which may be transacted at an annual meeting of the members of the corporation, and it shall be the duty of the secretary of the company, on receipt of the minutes of said meeting from the secretary thereof, to file the same in the office of the company, and record the same in the book of minutes of the company. Minutes of meeting to be filed

4. And be it enacted, That in the absence, at such meeting, of the books of the corporation, showing who are stockholders thereof, each person voting shall present his sworn statement setting forth that he is a stockholder of the corporation and the number of shares of stock owned by him and standing in his name on the books of the corporation, and if known to him, the total number of shares of stock of the corporation outstanding, including all classes if classified; on filing such statement he may vote as a stockholder of said corporation on the shares of stock appearing in such statement to be owned by him and standing in his name on the books of the corporation, each share of whatever class entitling him to one vote; always provided, that in case of falsity or mistake in such statement and question arising as the validity of the passage or rejection of any such resolution by the votes then cast, any shares not owned by any party voting as aforesaid shall be deducted from the total vote on either side then cast or represented in thereafter determining the validity of the passage or rejection of any such resolution by the actual vote cast at such meeting by those actually entitled to cast votes thereat as above provided. When a stockholder shall present sworn statement of number of shares of stock owned by him, &c.

Proviso.

5. And be it enacted, That in case of a resolution shall be duly passed at any such meeting pursuant to the provisions hereof repealing any such provisions as to the classification of directors or voting power or both, that then and from henceforth the term of office of all directors of said company then in office shall cease and determine, and a new election for directors of said company shall be held as aforesaid, and the new directors then elected shall be the lawful board of directors of said company, and shall be forthwith entitled to the possession and control of its property and franchise. New directors elected shall be the lawful board of directors.

6. And be it enacted, That in case of the repeal of any such provisions as to the classification of directors or Joint Resolutions.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

NUMBER I.

Joint Resolution relative to the arbitration of the claims of Robert S. Johnson against the state of New Jersey.

WHEREAS, a controversy exists as to the amount legally and equitably due from the state of New Jersey to Robert S. Johnson, of the city of Trenton, for work done and materials furnished under the terms of a contract made on the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, between the commission constituted under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of this state, entitled "An act for the restoration of the state house," approved April seventh, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and the supplements thereto, and the said Robert S. Johnson, and for extra work done and materials furnished in the erection and completion of the addition to the state capitol building, which extra work and extra materials were rendered necessary by alterations in the original plans for the erection and completion of said building; Preamble.

1. BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That all matters in difference between the state of New Jersey and Robert S. Johnson shall be and the same are hereby submitted to the arbitration of three arbitrators, one of whom shall be chosen by the governor, one by the said Robert S. Johnson, and the third by the two so chosen; such arbitrators shall be duly sworn by a justice of the supreme court to thoroughly examine all matters in difference between the state of New Jersey and the said Robert S. Johnson, and to report what amount, if anything, is legally and equita- How and by whom arbitrators chosen. By whom sworn.

bly due to the said Robert S. Johnson for all work done and all materials furnished by him in the erection and completion of the addition to the state capitol building; the said arbitrators shall be chosen within sixty days after the passage of this resolution; they shall have power to swear and examine witnesses, and the necessary expenses of such arbitration shall be allowed by the comptroller, on the approval of the governor; the award of said arbitrators shall be in writing, and shall be submitted to the governor for his approval; if he disagrees with the conclusions reached by a majority of said arbitrators, he shall return their award for correction; when a majority of said arbitrators shall reach a conclusion which shall be approved of by the governor, he shall endorse his approval thereon, and the award so approved shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the state and upon the said Robert S. Johnson; any money found to be due the said Robert S. Johnson by the award approved as aforesaid shall be paid to him from any state moneys not otherwise appropriated.

2. And be it resolved, That this resolution shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 28, 1898.

NUMBER II.

Joint Resolution to enable the state of New Jersey to take part in the ceremonies attending the unveiling, at Trenton New Jersey, of the monument to commemorate the battle of Trenton.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, a battle monument to commemorate the battle fought during the revolutionary war, in Trenton, on the twenty-sixth day of December, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, is now being erected, and it is expected that it will be fully completed during the present year; and whereas, it is eminently proper that a public work commemorative of so momentous an event in the struggle for independence, a work encouraged by both state and national legislation and standing on property deeded to this state, should be unveiled with such appropriate ceremonies as its great national importance demands; therefore,

1. BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That his excellency the governor, the state officers, members of the senate and house of assembly and such other officials of the state as seem proper, shall be invited to take part in the ceremonies attending the unveiling of said battle monument.

Who shall be invited to attend unveiling of battle monument

2. And be it resolved, That an appropriation of five thousand dollars is hereby made to meet the necessary and proper expenses of carrying out the provisions and intent of this resolution and that the comptroller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant for the same and the treasurer to pay the same to the treasurer of the Trenton battle monument association.

Appropriation of $5,000.

Warrant to be drawn on treasurer.

3. And be it resolved, That this joint resolution shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 4, 1893.

Proclamations.

PROCLAMATIONS.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

Whereas, by a joint resolution, approved June 29th, 1892, it was resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled :

“ That the President of the United States be authorized and directed to issue a proclamation recommending to the people the observance in all their localities of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America on October 21st, 1892, by public demonstration and by suitable exercises in their schools and other places of assembly; ”

And Whereas, the President of the United States, in pursuance of said authority, did on the 21st of July, 1892, issue his proclamation ;

And whereas, the Executive Committee of the National Columbian Public School Celebration has urged the issuing of proclamations by the Governors of the several States, recommending the people to observe said day for the purposes set forth in said joint resolution of Congress ;

Now therefore, I, LEON ABBETT, governor of the state of New Jersey, in order to carry out the purposes of said resolution, do hereby recommend that October 21st, 1892, be observed by the people of this state as a general holiday, and day of thanksgiving; that our citizens cease from toil and devote themselves on that day as far as possible to such exercises in their schools and other places of assembly as will properly celebrate the day and carry out the purposes of said resolution.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be [L. s.] hereunto affixed, at Trenton, this twentieth day of August, eighteen hundred and ninety-two.

LEON ABBETT.

By the Governor,
HENRY C. KELSEY,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Whereas, Thomas S. R. Brown, who, at a general election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety, was duly declared to have been elected a member of the senate of this state from the county of Monmouth, and subsequently thereto duly qualified as such senator, died on the fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, whereby a vacancy has occurred in the representation of said county of Monmouth, in said state senate;

Therefore, I, LEON ABBETT, governor of the state of New Jersey, by the requirement of law, do hereby issue this my proclamation, commanding and requiring that an election be held according to law in said county of Monmouth on Tuesday, the eighth day of November next ensuing the date hereof, for the purpose of electing a member of the senate of this state to fill the said vacancy occasioned by the death of said Thomas S. R. Brown.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the state of New Jersey, at Trenton, the fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord one [L. s.] thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and seventeenth.

LEON ABBETT.

By the Governor,
HENRY C. KELSEY,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
TRENTON, Nov. 15th, 1892. }

In accordance with the law and established custom in this State, the Executive each year sets apart a day of Thanksgiving and prayer, on which the people may rest from their labor and assemble in their homes and places of worship, to acknowledge and return thanks to Almighty God for his goodness and mercy, and pray that he will continue to bless them with abundance and prosperity;

Therefore, I, LEON ABBETT, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November, instant, as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, and recommend that the people of this State on that day abstain from all secular avocation, assemble in their usual places of worship, and give thanks to God for his infinite goodness in the past, and invoke for the future his blessings upon the nation, the state and the homes of our people.

[L. s.] Given under my hand and privy seal, at the Executive Chamber, in the city of Trenton, on this fifteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

LEON ABBETT,

Governor.

Attest :

LEON ABBETT, JR.,
Private Secretary.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

WHEREAS, the Comptroller did, on the first day of May, 1891, under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to repeal the charters of all corporations that have heretofore failed to pay State taxes imposed upon them by law," approved March 20th, 1891, report to the Governor a list of all the corporations coming within the first section of said act;

AND WHEREAS, the following corporations, incorporated under special or general laws of the state of New Jersey, and reported as aforesaid, had, at the date of the approval of said act, failed for the space of two years to pay the taxes imposed upon them by law, and payable into the state treasury;

AND WHEREAS, the Governor has not given further time for the payment of such taxes to the corporations so reported, and which are hereinafter named, and the same are still in arrears;

AND WHEREAS, under the provisions of said act, the charters of said corporations were repealed and declared null and void;

LEON ABBETT.

By the Governor.

HENRY C. KELSEY,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

Whereas, It has been satisfactorily made to appear that in the list of New Jersey Corporations reported to the Governor of said state on the first day of May, eighteen hundred and ninety two, was inadvertently included the corporation known as the Cape Island Gas Company, as one of such corporations which had for two consecutive years failed, neglected and refused to pay the state taxes which had been assessed against them for the year eighteen hundred and eighty nine under the laws of the said state of New Jersey, and made payable into the State Treasury;

And Whereas, It appears that all taxes due from said Cape Island Gas Company have been paid by the said last named company to the proper officers of the state of New Jersey, and that said company is not liable to the penalties set forth in the proclamation of the Governor of said state bearing date on the seventh day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety three, although said corporation known as the Cape Island Gas Company is included in the list of corporations specified therein;

Now, therefore, I, GEORGE T. WERTS, Governor of the said state of New Jersey, do hereby issue this my proclamation, revoking so much of the said proclamation of January seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, above referred to, as applies to the said corporation named therein as the Cape Island Gas Company, and said last named company is hereby declared to be restored to all of its corporate rights, powers, privileges and franchises as fully as if said proclamation of January seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, had not been issued and published as aforesaid. And I further direct that this proclamation be filed in the office of the secretary of state of the state of New Jersey.

PROCLAMATIONS.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the said [SEAL.] state of New Jersey to be hereunto affixed, at the city of Trenton, this twenty fifth day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety-three.

GEORGE T. WERTS.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by a joint resolution of the legislature, relative to the planting of forest trees, approved February twenty-first, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, I do hereby set apart Friday, the twenty-eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, for the planting of forest trees, and recommend that the day be devoted by the people to that purpose.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to [L. S.] be hereunto affixed, at Trenton, this twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

CHAPTER LVI.

An Act to release the title and interest of the people of the state of New Jersey in and to certain real estate of which William Brown (colored) died seized, in the town of Mount Holly.

WHEREAS, One William Brown (colored), late of the town of Mount Holly, Burlington county, New Jersey, departed this life in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, seized of a certain lot of land at Mount Holly, which was conveyed to him by Joseph Estill and wife by deed recorded in the clerk's office at Mount Holly, in book Z four of deeds, page five hundred and sixty-one, without having made any will and leaving no wife, children or other known kindred; and that prior to his death he gave to one Sarah E. Tilghyman (colored) the said lot of land, without making any deed of conveyance for the same to her however, but by passing over to her, with the possession of said lot of land, the original deed which he had received from Joseph Estill, supposing that that made a complete transfer of the title to her; and that the said Sarah E. Tilghyman departed this life on the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, without having made any will, but leaving her surviving as her heirs-at-law Henry Tilghyman, her son, and Ella Summer, her granddaughter; and that undisputed possession of the said premises since the death of said William Brown has been had by the said Sarah E. Tilghyman in her lifetime, and since her death by the said Henry Tilghyman and Ella Summer; therefore,

Title of the state of New Jersey released.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That all the estate, right, title and interest of the people of the state of New Jersey in, to and upon all the above recited lot or tract of land whereof the said William Brown died seized, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, is hereby released unto and vested in the said Henry Tilghyman and Ella Summer, the heirs-at-law of the said Sarah E. Tilghyman, and their heirs and assigns forever.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall be deemed a public act and take effect immediately.

Approved March 8, 1893.

CHAPTER LXXI.

An Act approving of the union, consolidation and merger of the New York and New Jersey underground railway company and the New York, New Jersey and Eastern railroad company.

Approval of
and merger.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the scheme of union, consolidation and merger of the New York and New Jersey underground railway company and the New York, New Jersey and Eastern railroad company, submitted to the legislature of this state for its consideration (a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof), is hereby approved by this act passed for that purpose.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 8, 1893.

SCHEME OF CONSOLIDATION AND MERGER.

THIS INDENTURE made and entered into this day of in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, by and between the directors of the New York, New Jersey and Eastern Railroad Company, and the directors of the New York and New Jersey Underground Railway Company. Witnesseth:

WHEREAS, The New York, New Jersey and Eastern Railroad Company is a corporation organized and existing under and pursuant to the laws of the state of New York to build, maintain and operate a line of railroad from some point in the city of Brooklyn, in the county of Kings, and state of New York, at or near the junction of Flatbush and Atlantic avenues in said city, and running from thence by the most convenient and eligible route underground to and under the waters of the East river, to and under the city of New York, in the county New York, and the waters of the Hudson river to some convenient and eligible point in the state of New York at the boundary line between the state of New York and the state of New Jersey under the waters of the Hudson river at some point in said boundary line lying opposite the city of Jersey City, in the state of New Jersey, which two points shall be the termini with a branch or branches running from the boundary line aforesaid to some convenient and eligible point at or near the Battery in said city and county of New York; the said New York, New Jersey and Eastern Railroad Company has authorized capital stock of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and its line and route has been located, but not yet constructed; and,
